forts to Delay Action

May Be Had This Week

BOXING BILL IS DEFEATED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 25.—By a vote of 107 to 41, the lower house of the legislature late today passed Governor Dunne's waterway bill providing for the construction of an eight foot channel connecting the Chicago drainage canal with the Illinois river, thereby creating a direct water route between the Great Lakes and the Gulf of Mexico, via the Mississippi river.

Dunne and Leaders Pleased.
The Illinois river is navigable to LaSalle and the Chicago Drainage Canal extends from Chicago to Joliet. The bill passed today provides for the building of a connecting waterway over the 65 miles between Joliet and LaSalle at a cost of $5,000,000. The vote came after a day of debate and several unsuccessful efforts had been made to delay action. Governor Dunne and his leaders were pleased with the large vote. Only seventy-seven votes were necessary for passage and administration leaders had claimed only 95 votes. The bill was immediately sent to the senate, where further action may be had on it this week.Take Up Shurtliff Bill.
Immediately after it had passed the waterway bill the house took the Shurtliff child labor bill under consideration and so amended it that many believe the measure to be dead. The bill provided that all children should be compelled to attend school until eighteen years of age but that children between sixteen and eighteen could work if they obtained school permits.

The house adopted an amendment which would keep all children in school until they are sixteen years of age. After that age they would not require a school certificate to work and before that age they could work only during the summer vacation.

Fourteen year old children can now work by obtaining school permit. Another amendment, eliminating the health certificate requirement was offered by Representative R. E. Wilson and was adopted.

Pass Mulcahy Bill.
By a vote of 138 to 0, the house passed the Mulcahy bill prohibiting a fine for such advertising of not to exceed $1,000 or sixty days in jail or both.

Senator Denvir offered a resolution in the senate this afternoon directing the chairman of the senate appropriations committee to report to the senate day by day on the omnibus appropriation bill, so that members may be informed regarding its contents. Under the rules the resolution lies over until tomorrow.

Senator Manny offered a resolution creating the Illinois centennial commission, created two years ago to arrange for the celebration in 1918 of the one hundredth anniversary of the admission of Illinois to statehood. All the original members of the commission are retained and the name of Representative Edward D. Shurtliff is added, to fill the vacancy resulting from the death of the original chairman, the late Senator C. S. Harris.

Senator Denvir won a fight to have the mothers' pension bill which was reported as having passed the house, advanced to second reading in the senate without committee reference.

Two of the efficiency and economy commission's bill so called up for passage in the senate this afternoon but neither received the required twenty-five votes and the lives of the measures were saved only through parliamentary tactics.

Santry Loses Battle.
Eddie Santry of Chicago, former feather-weight boxing champion of the world and now a member of the Illinois legislature, lost a hard battle tonight when the lower house of the legislature after a four-hour debate, refused to pass his boxing bill, legalizing ten-round, no-decision boxing bouts under the supervision of a state athletic commission similar to the one in Wisconsin.

When the gong sounded the final vote on the bill stood 72 to 67, just five votes short of the number required for passage. The final knockout came a minute later when opponents of the measure succeeded in obtaining a verification of the vote, thereby preventing a postponement of action which would have kept the bill alive and ready for another vote.

BECKER MUST DIE IN THE ELECTRIC CHAIRCOURT OF APPEALS AFFIRMS CON-VICTION OF POLICE LIEUTENANTExecutive Clemency Is Regarded as Remote—Governor Declines to Discuss Case—It Is Not Believed
Case Will Be Brought Before the Acting Governor.

Albany, N. Y., May 25.—Charles Becker, the former New York police lieutenant, must die in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison within the next six weeks for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the New York gambler, by four gunmen on July 16th, 1912, unless Governor Whitman or the United States supreme court intervenes. The court of appeals of New York today affirmed the conviction of Becker by a jury in the supreme court at his second trial, held several months ago. The same court granted Becker a new hearing after his first trial on the ground that presiding Justice Goff had erred. Executive clemency for Becker is regarded as remote. As district attorney of New York county, the present governor prosecuted the former police lieutenant both times, personally conducting the examination of witnesses in the second trial.

Governor Is Silent.
Tonight the governor declined to discuss the case in any way. Speculation is rife here as to whether Becker, facing death, will not seek to save his life by making revelations in connection with the so-called "police system" in New York, to the governor. Regardless of his connection with the Rosenthal case, he is believed to be possessed of information that would be invaluable to state and New York City officials. The statement has been frequently made that the trial of Becker and the four gunmen who shot Rosenthal only scratched the surface of the true conditions in New York police circles.

The date for Becker's execution may not be set nor the death warrant signed until next week, owing to the absence of some of the judges. The law prescribes that an execution must take place not less than four nor more than six weeks after a decision is handed down. Lieutenant Governor Schoenck will act as governor during the next twenty-three days while the governor is in California. It is not believed that the Becker case will be brought before the acting governor.

Holds Trial Was Fair.
The prevailing opinion of the court, written by chief Judge William Bartlett, held that the second trial was fair and free from error. Judge Hogan alone dissented. He submitted no written opinion. Judge Seabury, who, as a supreme court judge presided at the second trial and is now a member of the court of appeals did not sit in the case.DUNKARDS DECIDE MEMBERS
SHALL NOT OWN AUTOMOBILES

DAYTON, O., May 25.—At a meeting of the National Conference of Dunkards of the United States and Canada today the denominational representatives unanimously decided that members should not own automobiles. This question has faced the church for a number of years. It was also decided not to sell whatever food is left over after the conference but to give it to the poor. The conference is being attended by four thousand members. Foot washing among members is being strictly observed.

ITALY'S ACTION OCCASIONS NO SURPRISE IN TURKISH CAPITAL

CONSTANTINOPLE, via London, May 25.—(7:45 p. m.)—Italy's action of war against Austria-Hungary occasioned no surprise at the Turkish capital because it was expected. The official word was the public show no excitement as, so far, the relations between Turkey and Italy remain normal. Whether Italy's action is likely to involve Turkey is a matter which the members of the diplomatic corps are not willing to discuss. The Turkish press has treated the affair conservatively, while in governmental circles the situation is viewed calmly but with a determination to meet future exigencies to the best of Turkey's ability.

Europe years ago and captured the feather-weight championship for America, fought hard to obtain the passage of the bill which he championed. With modern and old fashioned boxing gloves strapped to his wrists, Santry showed his colleagues the difference between "boxing" and "prize fighting" and insisted that his bill was a "boxing" bill and not a "prize fighting" measure.

Downstate Vote Kills Measure.
However, Santry had hard opposition and it was the downstate vote which defeated his bill. Representative Perkins of Lincoln, G. H. Wilson of Quincy and W. J. Graham of Alledo led the opposition to the bill. Representative Perkins opposed it on the ground that it would create "one more commission" and that the lowest element of society follows in the wake of prize-fights. All three of the speakers claimed they could see no excuse for such a bill.TRIANA DELIVERS

EXPLAIN NEEDS OF COUNTRIES

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The story of how vast resources of the United States may be used to aid the republics of South and Central America in clearing away difficulties that the European war has brought upon the Western Hemisphere was told in part today to business men and bankers who represent this nation at the Pan-American financial conference.

Tell Needs of Countries.
In "group conferences" delegates from eighteen countries began explanations to representatives of commercial and financial interests of the United States of their peculiar needs and indicated in what ways capital and credit could be used to best advantage to strengthen trade relations. Only a few of the delegates were prepared with concrete suggestions, but the general idea expressed was that in the southern republics the surplus capital of the United States would gain fertile fields for investment which must bring in the future a closer union of political and commercial interests.

The only general session of the conference today was marked by a dramatic speech by Dr. Santiago Perez Triana, delegate from Colombia, who waived the flag of Pan-Americanism and declared that this hemisphere should be for Americans. He proposed a new version of the Monroe doctrine that would make it impossible in the future for one American nation to covet a foot of a neighbor's territory or invade her sacred soil. It was a speech such as had not been heard before at the conference, devoted largely to questions of commerce and trade, and the delegates greeted it with continued applause.

Should Make Harmony Clear.
"Let us see," said Dr. Triana, "that the harmony in this continent is diaphanous, transparent and clear without one shadow of doubt."

"I am not here to recapitulate or to blame—far be it for me. Wherever redress is possible redress should be accomplished. Wherever in the historic development of the nation redress is not possible we should resign ourselves to the imperfections of humanity and let bygones be bygones and let the dead past bury its dead."

When the groups assembled after the general session the delegation from Argentina advanced a suggestion which may make possible an understanding that all the nations represented shall work for an arrangement whereby disputes arising between business men in the different countries shall be instructed by arbitration.

Later this proposal was taken up by the executive committee of the United States chamber of commerce, which through its president, John Fahey, gave assurances that every effort possible would be done to have such a plan approved by the business men in this country.

GERMAN DIPLOMATS
ARRIVE AT LUGANO.

Berne, Switzerland, May 25.—(8:15 p. m.)—via Paris, (9:30 p. m.)—The Prussian and Bavarian ambassadors to the Vatican, Dr. von Muhlberg and Baron von Ritter, arrived this afternoon at Lugano, where they will reside during the war.

ISSUES CASUALTY LIST.

Ottawa, Ont., May 25.—The list of casualties among the Canadian contingent issued by the militia department tonight contains the names of five killed in action, four dead of wounds, five missing, twenty-eight wounded, one prisoner, one suffering from gas fumes and one dead from meningitis.

APPROVE REDMOND'S ACTION.

Dublin, May 25.—(11:17 p. m.)—The Irish party at a meeting today unanimously adopted a resolution approving John Redmond's action in declining a seat in the new cabinet. The party issued a statement declaring that "the events of last week have created a situation demanding the serious and careful consideration of the Irish people."

MARION VOTES DRY.

Marion, Ind., May 25.—Marion voted dry today by a majority of seven hundred and twenty-nine. The dry majority two years ago was one hundred and twenty three.

War News Summarized

Great Britain's new war cabinet, whereby it is hoped to carry on the campaign with greater energy and efficacy, has been formed. Earl Kitchener retains his position as secretary of war. David Lloyd-George is transferred from the time being from the office of chancellor of the exchequer to the ministry of munitions—a new post. Winston Spencer Churchill, whose administration had been criticised in various quarters, is replaced by Arthur J. Balfour, who has always had a strong voice in the direction of the opposition; while Andrew Bonar Law, the leader of the opposition, has become secretary for the colonies.

The Austro-Italian campaign has developed little so far beyond the pushing forward of the Italian advance guards who have crossed the frontier and occupied several towns in the direction of Trieste, and a raid by Austrian warships and aeroplanes on several of the Italian coast towns.

There are indications that the Italians are developing a strong offensive movement, particularly in the direction of Istria, the possession of which would be of supreme strategic importance to them.

The campaigns in the old theatres of the war, the east and the west, are occupying the attention of vast bodies of troops along these fronts.

North of Przemyśl in Galicia, the Austro-Germans, under General von Mackensen, are engaged in a powerful drive against the Russian lines and have, according to official statements coming from both Vienna and Berlin, taken an additional twenty-one thousand prisoners, thirty-nine cannon and forty machine guns. In the west the British have not been able to hold all of their line against the German assault but the French report important progress to the north of Arras, the capture of one of the great German trenches in the neighborhood of Souchez and two important German works to the northwest of Arras, which period them to advance over territory from which they had previously been barred.

CHAMBERLAIN SAYS INCREASE IN ARMY IS PRACTICALLY ASSURED

PORTLAND, Ore., May 25.—"There will certainly be an increase in the United States army, unless conditions change materially before the next congress," said United States Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the senate committee on military affairs. "However, it will probably be a slight increase only, not what could be called a substantial increase. But some increase is practically assured."

"There will also be a re-organization of the army in certain lines to add to its efficiency. A re-organization has been needed for a long time and we shall introduce legislation intended to make our present army more mobile and more efficient generally."

"I have already talked this over with Secretary of War Garrison and he has asked me to return to Washington before congress convenes so that we can go over all proposed legislation."

PHYSICIANS SAY GREEK KING
IS IN NO IMMEDIATE DANGER

ATHENS, via London, May 25.—(11:35 p. m.)—The condition of King Constantine as disclosed in Monday night's report, was less satisfactory than they were led to believe, though the physicians in attendance upon the king now say he is in no immediate danger. The physicians are considering the advisability of the performing another operation as the inflammation around the edges of the first incision denotes the possibility of further infection. A Viennese specialist has been summoned to the bedside of the king. The latest concerning the monarch says he is more restful. His temperature is given as 99.7.

Prayers for the recovery of the king are being said in all the churches here.

CLOSE STRIKE INVESTIGATION.

Washington, May 25.—Investigation of the Colorado Coal strike was closed today by the industrial relations commission and tomorrow after hearing statements about the labor conditions in Porto Rico and examining a few witnesses on miscellaneous matters, the commission will conclude its general hearings and inquiries which have been in progress for more than a year.

At a meeting to be held in Chicago about June 1st the work of framing a report to congress will be undertaken.

ISSUE CASUALTY LIST.

London, May 26.—(3 a. m.)—The British casualty lists just published are again heavy. They include ninety-one officers and nearly two thousand men of both services. Among the killed were Lieutenant Arthur Coke, son of the Earl of Leicester and Major John Mackenzie, who won the Victoria cross in the Ashanti campaign in 1900.

stry of Foreign Affairs

CREATE MUNITIONS MINISTRY

LONDON, May 25.—(9:14 p. m.)—Lord Kitchener retains the post of secretary of war in the new coalition cabinet which has received the approval of King George. The first lord of the admiralty will be Arthur J. Balfour. Winston Spencer Churchill, former head of the admiralty, is given the post of chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster.

Herbert H. Asquith retains the premiership and Sir Edward Grey, the ministry of foreign affairs. David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer in the old cabinet, will be minister of munitions in the new one.

Constitution of Cabinet.

The constitution of the new cabinet follows:
Prime minister and first lord of the treasury—Mr. Asquith.
Minister without port folio—Lord Lansdowne.

Lord high chancellor—Sir Stanley O. Buckmaster.

Lord president of the council—Lord Crewe.

Lord privy seal—Lord Surson of Kedleston.

Chancellor of the exchequer—Reginald McKenna.

Secretary of state for home affairs—Sir John A. Simon.

Secretary of state for foreign affairs—Sir Edward Grey.

Secretary for the colonies—Andrew Bonar Law.

Secretary for India—J. Austen Chamberlain.

Secretary of state for war—Lord Kitchener.

Minister of munition—David Lloyd-George.

First lord of the admiralty—Arthur J. Balfour.

President of the board of trade—Walter Runciman.

President of the local government board—Walter Hume Long.

Secretary for Scotland—Thomas McKinnon Wood.

President of the board of agriculture—Lord Selborne.

First commissioner of works—Lewis Gilbert.

President of the board of education—Arthur Henderson.

Attorney general—Sir Edward Carson.

The official announcement on the new cabinet says:

"A place in the cabinet was offered to Mr. John Redmond (the Irish nationalist leader) but he did not see his way to accept it."

"The prime minister has decided that a new department shall be created to be called the ministry of munitions, charged with organizing the supply of munitions of war. Mr. Lloyd-George has undertaken the formation and temporary direction of this department and during his tenure of office as minister of munitions will vacate the office of chancellor of the exchequer."

"It is understood that Mr. Henderson will assist the government in matters of labor."

"The king has been pleased to confer upon Viscount Haldane of Cloan (the retiring lord high chancellor) the Order of Merit."

ITALY GIVES REASONS
FOR DECLARING WARADDRESSES LENGTHY COMMUNICA-TION TO NEUTRAL GOVERNMENTSDocument Reviews Negotiations Between Austria and Italy, Revealing That They Began Immediately
Upon the Despatch of Austria's
Ultimatum to Serbia.

Washington, May 25.—Italy has addressed to the neutral governments of the world a lengthy communication explaining her reasons for declaring war on Austria. Count Di Cellerio, the Italian ambassador, presented the document to Secretary Bryan today in the form of a note to the United States government. It reviews negotiations between Italy and Austria, revealing that they began immediately upon the despatch of Austria's ultimatum to Serbia. Italy claimed then that the action of Austria disturbed the equilibrium of the Balkans and the peace of Europe in a way that vitally affected Italian interests. As an ally of Austria, Italy asserts the right to have been consulted before the sending of the ultimatum, the first news of which was received through the newspapers. Failing to obtain through diplomacy the satisfaction of her territorial and national aspirations, Italy announces in the note that a declaration of war was the only means of safeguarding her position in Europe.

Takes Its Place in Archives.

The document takes its place in state department archives along with the other notes and messages received at the outbreak of the war from the foreign offices of Europe explaining the positions of the respective governments and their reasons for actions. None of these has been published, although the European governments have covered substantially the same ground in the various pamphlets dealing with the diplomatic negotiations prior to the declarations of war. Regarding the negotiations immediately preceding the declaration of war the communication says:

"Inasmuch as the treaty alliance with Austria-Hungary had ceased virtually to exist and served only to prolong a state of continual friction and mutual suspicion the Italian ambassador at Vienna was instructed to declare to the Austro-Hungarian government that the Italian government considered itself free from the ties arising out of the treaty of the triple alliance in-so far as Austro-Hungary was concerned. This communication was delivered in Vienna on May 4th."

"Subsequently to this declaration and after we had been obliged to take steps for the protection of our interests, the Austro-Hungarian government submitted new concessions, which, however, were deemed insufficient and by no means met our minimum demands. These offers could not be considered under the circumstances."

POSTAL REVENUES FOR FIRST
HALF OF YEAR SHOW DEFICITExpenses Increase More Than $9-
000,000 While Receipts Decrease
Almost $500,000.

Washington, May 25.—Postal revenues for the first half of the current fiscal year which ends July 1st show a deficit of practically $6,500,000. Figures issued by the postoffice department show the expenses of the postal establishment increased more than $9,000,000 as against the corresponding period last year, while receipts decreased almost $500,000.

In connection with the financial statement, Postmaster General Burleson said:

"The deficit is directly attributable to the European war which interrupted the normal growth of postal revenues. The closing of the stock exchanges last fall was one of the factors which reduced the flow of both domestic and foreign letter and registered mail and cut a big hole in postal receipts at the large cities. Mail order exchange also was for a time seriously restricted."

"Were it not for the parcel post, the deficit for the first half of the present fiscal year undoubtedly would be much larger."

"A steady increase of postal receipts is now reported and constitutes indisputable proof of returning prosperity."

Rome's First Bulletin Dealing With Operations Indicates Two Movements Under Way

GERMANS CLAIM SUCCESSES

LONDON, May 25.—(10:25 p. m.)—Austria has struck first with her navy and aircraft along Italy's east coast; Italy promptly countered by throwing a considerable body of troops across the northeastern frontier and occupying a stretch of Austrian territory along the Isonzo. Thus, although Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, who has a reputation for forcing matters, is reported to be in command of the Austro-German troops along the new front, Italy in a sense, has forestalled him.

Compel Austrian Retreat.

Rome officially announces that the Italians have occupied a number of comparatively important towns and have compelled the Austrians to retreat. This, in brief summarizes the first thirty-six hours of the newest phase of the ever widening European conflict, which being new appeals to the popular imagination, rather sated by the seemingly unending struggle in the other theatres of the war. The rapid stroke of the Italian army would seem to be speak of a long preparation bearing out what the press of the allied countries contended months ago, that Italy would throw in her lot with the entente and was only waiting for an opportune time. Rome's first bulletin dealing with the movements of the army indicates that two movements are underway—one to the northward, toward the Carnic Alps; the other through the region of Friuli ostensibly aimed at Trieste and the Istrian peninsula. Cervignano, one of the Austrian towns occupied by the Italians, is only about ten miles inland from the Gulf of Trieste. Both thrusts should develop severe fighting. Just as Italy lightly characterized Monday's Austrian raids along her coast, so Austria characterizes the military operations to date as border skirmishes. While today's Rome official communication laid stress on the Italian push across the border, the official statement from Vienna ignores it and gives details of the Austrian swoop on the Italian coast, enumerating the damage and emphasizing the slight Italian resistance.

Germans Claim Successes.

The German claims for the day embrace both east and west notably around Ypres and north of Przemyśl. In the latter region it is announced that General Mackensen is again surging forward and taking a colossal number of prisoners. The British war office admits that the British have been unable entirely to reform their line denied by the Germans east of Ypres and these developments with the German details.

The most interesting statement in the British announcement is "that with due precautions" gas attacks can be "met and defeated." This is particularly pertinent in that gas bids fair to be used more and more, possibly by all the contenders.

Has Heavy Casualty List.

Attesting to the extremely sanguinary character of the recent land fighting at the land fighting at the Dardanelles, where the British and French are seeking to dislodge the strongly entrenched Turks, there came tonight a list of 919 casualties among the Australians engaged in this enterprise. The Turkish losses apparently have been greater, as it was necessary for them on Sunday last to secure an armistice to bury their dead. 3,000 of whom lay before the British trenches. A radical shakeup in the British cabinet was announced tonight. The most interesting change is the transfer of Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, to the chancellorship of the Duchy of Lancaster; Arthur J. Balfour, the former leader of the opposition, taking the admiralty portfolio. David Lloyd George, chancellor of the Exchequer, who vacates that office temporarily, has been appointed minister of munitions.

A Notable Birthday.

Dr. Shailer Mathews, famous American churchman, educator, editor and author, whose recent trip to Japan as an envoy of American churches cleared away much of the distrust between Japan and America, is 52 years old today. Dr. Mathews, who was accompanied by Rev. Sidney L. Gulick on the Eastern mission, found that the discontent in Japan as well as the rumors published in America emanated from Pekin, where a certain European government had established a bureau for publishing false rumors designed to cause trouble. He found the Japanese ready and willing to meet the United States half way, and brought back messages of good will from the government and institutions of Japan.

Dr. Mathews was born at Portland, Me., May 26, 1863, was educated at Colby, Newton Theological School and University of Berlin. He joined the faculty of the University of Chicago in 1894, and has been dean of the University since 1908. He is editor of the Biblical World, president of various economical and mission societies in Chicago, and President of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. He has written extensively on biblical subjects and church affairs, and is associate editor of various religious publications.

Mr. Shaw's Appointment.

Jacksonville people who have been present at the rate hearings before Commissioner Shaw of the Illinois Utility Commission have been impressed with his technical knowledge and his evident desire to see that the public is given a square deal. They will therefore feel that the following commendation for Mr. Shaw from the Springfield Register, is not undeserved:

"However, Mr. Shaw's qualifications are not limited to his engineering ability. With equal prominence has his comprehensive grasp of the large and fundamental principles of true economics stood out in his work upon the commission. In the present formative state of regulation, with its lack of well defined rules and limitations and at the same time the advancement and strenuous advocacy of partisan theories, it is of particular importance that the commission's steps be directed along lines fundamentally sound and its action kept in accordance with true basic principles, and it is in his knowledge and application of these principles that Mr. Shaw can probably be said to have contributed his greatest strength and value to the commission."

The Amended Law.

The action taken by the education committee of the general assembly in amending the bill for abolishing the Jacksonville school charter in such a way that it will not become effective until next March so changes the measure that it meets most of the objection which had been urged against it. The change was made in accordance with the wishes of local citizens and places the bill in the form which was originally intended.

The point was made that if the bill as introduced should pass that an election would be likely to be held at such a time that there would be no school officials in office at the proper time to certify to the council the tax levy for school purposes. Other uncertainty also would be likely to result and so the change to March 1916 was desirable. Since the bill has received the unanimous endorsement of the education committee it is more than likely to be passed by the house and no doubt the senate will concur in the amendment to the bill as originally passed. After the change made by the committee Mr. Merritt and his colleagues decided that no hearing was necessary since the greatest objection made to the bill had been removed.

In Times of Peace Prepare for War. Announcement was made yesterday of the new English cabinet and it is notable that practically all of the strongest leaders are retained. Seemingly the greatest change has been the shifting of Winston Churchill to other work and the designation of Arthur J. Balfour as first lord of the admiralty. No doubt the friction in that department brought to pass this change.

That the country recognizes that the war is to be long continued is indicated by the naming of David Lloyd-George as minister of munitions and in view of present conditions a vast work lies before him. One criticism of the English war operators has been the inability to handle munitions so speedily as the demand. But this condition is only another indication of the fact that England, from an army standpoint was the least prepared of any of the great nations for the conflict. She had long placed such reliance upon the strength of the navy that not the proper attention was paid to the land forces with the result that she has been forced to conduct mainly a defensive warfare. Advocates of a larger army in this country are pointing to England as an example of what unpreparedness means when a great conflict comes. Gradually England is getting her great forces marshaled and equipped but the fact that the army was not in a high state of preparedness has meant the loss of much time and thousands of lives.

Mr. Hill and His Tariff.
(From the Pittsburgh Gazette Times, Rep.)

James J. Hill of the great north-west and elsewhere is much worried for fear the tariff will be made the principal issue next year. He urges newspapers to enter upon a campaign of education which will avert such a calamity. He believes that the tariff should be taken out of politics, as many others do, although nobody has been able yet to show just how this can be done in a country in which government necessarily is by parties.

Not to go into that large subject, however, it may be in place to call Mr. Hill's attention to the importance of getting his premise on straight before he reaches a conclusion. He says:

Experience has shown that every general reconstruction of the tariff, whether for better or worse, means at least two years of doubt, hesitation, bad business. It would have been more accurate if Mr. Hill had said "every reconstruction of the tariff by the Democratic party." There wasn't any "bad business" caused by the impending Dingley bill or the Payne-Aldrich revision, nor was there hesitation or doubt on the wrong side of things. Instead there was a feeling of confidence that, no matter what the ultimate schedules might be, industries would be protected, wages would not be reduced, and the opportunity of American enterprise would be preserved. Passage of the Dingley act was followed by a remarkable period of prosperity and the only fly in the ointment was the Spanish War, which didn't last long. Within a year after the Payne-Aldrich law was signed there were increases in wages of over $500,000,000 per annum, and this standard was maintained until the Democratic victory of 1912 was assured. All business boomed. It was when inauguration was in sight that the ebb tide began.

Mr. Hill belongs to a comparative, if small group of immensely rich men who, having "got theirs," are indifferent to tariffs; and besides he is interested both ways, in the United States and outside of it.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Wyalusing, Wis.—Mrs. Lydia Thomas Shrake of this town will today celebrate her 104th birthday. She is the mother of ten sons, the eldest of whom is now 85, and five of whom fought in the Civil War. While her long and useful life has laid its impress upon her, she retains her faculties and ability to care for herself. Her memory of the early pioneer days is unimpaired.

Portland, Ore.—Miss Fay Clark, superintendent of schools of Malheur County, Oregon, has one of the most difficult regions of the country to work in. Her duties take her on trips more than 400 miles at a time, 150 of which are covered in a wagon without springs. Only 15 of the 62 schools in her section can be reached by railroad.

Newark, N. J.—Mrs. Winston Churchill, wife of the novelist, with Mrs. Antoinette Funk of Chicago, and Miss Virginia Watrous of Washington, are completing their suffrage campaign in New Jersey. Monday they opened a two day campaign in Paterson. The mascot of the trip is the bulldog of Miss Watrous, which is named "Votes."

Boston.—A fund is being raised in Boston, Chicago, New York and Philadelphia for a memorial to Madame Marie Dapage of Brussels, Belgium, who lost her life on the Lusitania while returning from the Lusitania mission to America for the sake of humanity and her country. The great work which she started will be perpetuated in the Dapage Memorial Field Hospital. The idea for this fund was suggested by Dr. Samuel J. Mixer of this city.

St. Joseph, Mo.—The Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs will meet here Wednesday for its sixth biennial. From 55 clubs the membership has grown to 215. Mrs. W. R. Chivvis, president, has been in California, but is expected to be present. The notable point about the convention is the suggestion that it be a plain clothes convention. Mrs. Chivvis has led a campaign for the elimination of extravagance, and the keynote of the convention will be service rather than style.

Philadelphia.—The first national observance of the natal day of an American woman was that of last Thursday, when Dolly Madison Day was observed in many quarters of America. The principal exercises were held here, where Dolly Madison lived for many years. It was here, that, after the tragic death of her first husband, John Todd, a Quaker, that she met the great statesman whom she married. The old house where she presided as Mistress Madison is still standing in Spruce Street, and it was there that she entertained Lafayette, Talleyrand, and other notables from abroad.

Jacksonville, Fla.—The symbolic group, representing the Woman of the South, to be erected in the Confederate Park, Jacksonville, has been finished by the sculptor and has arrived here. It is given by the Confederate Veterans, assisted by the State of Florida. The group shows a woman of the '60s, clad in the dress of the times, with a boy and girl at either side of her. A book lies open in her lap, and the theme depicts the influence of the Southern mother in the home.

BILL TO ABOLISH SCHOOL CHARTER FAVORABLY REPORTED

Amendment Fixes March 1916 as Date Proposed Law Will Become Effective Thus Removing Opposition—Change Agreed Upon by Sponsors for the Bill—Passage Well Nigh Certain.

In Springfield Tuesday the educational committee of the general assembly reported out favorably the bill designed to repeal the special school charter of Jacksonville. This action was taken after an amendment had been added which makes the law effective March 1, 1916. The bill is almost certain to pass the house when it comes up for a vote and there is little doubt but that the senate will concur in the amendment.

The amendment made was satisfactory to State Treasurer Andrew Russell who has taken an active part in getting the bill before the general assembly. He appeared before the educational committee to state his reasons for urging the bill and further to acquiesce in the proposed amendment. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Danskin also appeared before the committee and Mr. Danskin spoke in behalf of the amended bill.

Before the committee action on the bill Mr. Russell telephoned to Mayor Rodgers to ask if the proposed change was satisfactory to him and the mayor assured him that with this change he had no objection to the bill and would do nothing to oppose its passage. It seems that Monday night Mayor Rodgers and Mr. Russell had an extended conference at which time the mayor pointed out the danger there was in the bill as drawn of making it impossible to arrange a tax levy for the coming year and thus causing a very chaotic condition in school affairs as to finances and a great uncertainty as to the status of teachers. Mayor Rodgers position was that while he was not opposed to the general law and had intended to take no part in the matter of blocking the course of the bill now before the legislature or of helping it along, that because of the financial contingency which might result that he felt it his duty to oppose the bill in its original form. Accordingly he had written letters to the representatives in this district making a protest and setting forth the danger in the proposed action and had enclosed also a copy of a resolution adopted by the council along the same lines.

In his letter Mayor Rodgers declared that he had always been in favor of the general law but was opposed to it at this time for the reason mentioned and he said further that it seemed that in justice the legislature if it opposed to special charters and favorable to the general law should take some action against all charters and not single out Jacksonville. He said further that if the law was to be passed it certainly should be made to become effective next spring instead of the coming summer.

Mr. Russell said last night that he and Mr. Rodgers had a very satisfactory conversation on the whole matter Monday night and that when he had his original conversation with Mr. Thompson of the state superintendent's office that his idea was to have the bill take effect next spring but by some chance it had been drawn for July 1st and in this form had been introduced. Further Mr. Russell said that before the committee met Tuesday morning that Representative Merritt called on him and suggested that a hearing be held Wednesday evening and that a committee come to Jacksonville for the purpose and that he agreed to this and expressed the feeling that such a hearing was entirely desirable. Later Mr. Merritt suggested the amendment to March 1st and Mr. Russell readily agreed to this and subsequently wrote the language of the amendment, at the same time stating that his original wish and intention had been for the law to be effective March 1st. Further Mr. Russell said that Mr. Merritt had been very courteous about the whole matter as had other representatives from this district and the members of the committee. The amendment agreed upon therefore cleared away whatever opposition there was in committee and it was reported out favorably by a unanimous vote.

The greater part of local opposition to the bill has been based upon the fact that it was to take effect in July and it seems now that the measure in its amended form is likely to have clear sailing in the house and later in the senate where it must go in the new form. At any rate the condition will be satisfactory and affairs as to finances or teachers cannot be unsettled by an election this summer.

WOMAN'S CLUB ENDORSES THE GENERAL SCHOOL LAW

An endorsement of the general school law was voted yesterday afternoon at a special meeting of the Woman's club. The club was called to order in Scott's parlors at 3:30 o'clock by the president, Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson and the subject, presented in the form of a motion by Mrs. A. L. Adams, received unanimous support. The executive board of the club, has already gone on record as favoring the change to the new regime, but it was thought best to strengthen this endorsement and the matter was thus presented to the body as a whole. A spirited discussion followed the putting of the motion in which a number spoke in support of the measure now before the assembly. Personal animosity should be cast aside, suggested the speakers, and the schools of Jacksonville taken from under the provisions of the 1867 charter.

WERE PARTICIPANTS IN PLAY—SOPHOCLES.

In the account of the play, Antigone of Sophocles, given under the auspices of the Classical club on the campus of the Woman's college Monday afternoon, mention should have been made of Royal Davis, Miss Johnston, Paul Watkins and Floyd Davis. Royal Davis gave a very dramatic recital of the death of Haemon and Antigone. He showed considerable vigor and ability in this important role. Paul Watkins who took the part of Haemon displayed good clear enunciation and entered into the spirit of the son of Creon in splendid style. Floyd Davis as Tiresias, the blind prophet, had a difficult part to play but he executed it in an exceedingly clever manner and his lines were given with great earnestness. Miss Johnston was a member of the committee in charge of the play together with Dr. Tanner, chairman and Miss S. Kent.

Miss Johnston had charge of the training of the chorus and took up the work of Miss Herren with great credit to herself and the entire performance.

JOLIET SCHOOL WORK IS ON VERY BROAD LINES

Center Work—Night Schools for Foreigners.

A number of Jacksonville people have received printed matter telling something of the work of the Joliet elementary schools. There is special interest here in the Joliet school system because R. O. Stoops is one of the principals and William Alcott is one of the instructors in the manual training department. The exhibit, recently held of academic, art, household arts and manual training work attracted a great deal of attention. The booklet and program announcing the exhibit and outlining the work attempted in the elementary schools were printed on the manual training press, and give evidence of the efficient work in that department.

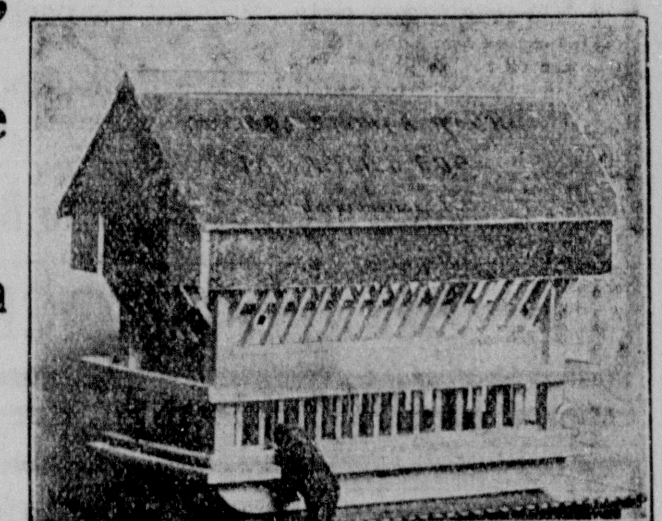

The Joliet elementary schools have an enrollment of 5,800 pupils under the direction of 195 teachers. The schools, according to the booklet, aim to give expression to the varied interests of the child, and inasmuch as these interests are interwoven, the attempt is made to correlate all of the organized activities of the school into a comprehensive scheme which seeks to develop the whole nature of the child. Such a scheme, therefore, necessarily provides moral, civic, physical and manual as well as intellectual training. The general departments therefore include academic work, music, physical training, art, household arts, and manual training, together with a number of special features. An effort is made along the lines of vocational guidance with the end in view of directing particularly the boy along the line of his greatest aptitude and interest so that he may be kept in school as long as possible.

A record is kept of each boy fourteen years of age and over. This record gives facts of a pertinent nature. Opportunity is offered to talk with the boy who seems uninterested. These talks reveal the boy's bend, and in the end an endeavor is made to give him work that appeals to him. Fifteen special teachers employed in as many buildings give individual attention to retarded pupils. At the central school two ungraded rooms are conducted for backward pupils and there also a special manual training room is maintained for delinquent boys. Because of the large foreign population in Joliet, during seven months of the year evening school are maintained for foreign born men and women to give them an opportunity to learn the English language and to become acquainted with some of the fundamental duties of American citizenship. Another feature of the educational system is the vacation school, and four school gardens were operated last year containing more than 500 individual plots. The Joliet schools have more than 73 acres of play space, or an average of 600 square feet for each child enrolled. Three of the schools are being developed as social, civic and recreational centers. A generous athletic field, a large gymnasium and swimming pool, an ample auditorium, moving picture equipment and special rooms for meetings are some of the provisions to meet this community use. Altogether, the Joliet schools are doing a great work, and such of their recent development is due to the efficient direction of the superintendent, R. O. Stoops.

SLUMBER PARTY.

Miss Gladys Sargent of South East street gave slumber party to six of her friends Tuesday evening. Those present were Misses Helen Leach, Alma Gibbs, May Skinner, Lulu Belkile Hildreth, Hazel Brown. Refreshments were served and the occasion was delightful in every particular.

SENIOR CLASS OF HIGH SCHOOL SURRENDER PLACE TO JUNIORS

Appropriate Class Day Exercises in
J. H. S. Auditorium Tuesday Evening.

Fun and gentle raillery ran riot last night when seniors of the high school carried out their class day program and in ceremonies both humorous and solemn laid down their duties and prerogatives for the members of the junior class and next year's seniors. The class sat on the platform dressed in red and white, the high school colors. The auditorium was filled with friends and fellow students of the graduates and the program was replete with interest from the first musical number until the presentation of the last trophy and the words of farewell and appreciation by the president, Frank Merrill. After the program the class went to the David Prince school gymnasium where a group picture was taken.

Music by the high school orchestra was first in order and after the opening numbers Miss Grace Hoffman, the pianist, played the march for the seniors' entrance.

"Our Pilgrimage through J. H. S.," by Miss Dorothy Weber, the class historian, informed the auditors of 1915's life story. "As a band of pilgrims with happy hearts we first entered the portals," said the historian. Clouds soon came to fret the sky, she recounted but the long journey was a happy one and despite "days and weeks of unceasing toil and troubles" victories were won and the hoped-for end attained.

Frank Caldwell in his class will make many clever hits and quaint allusions. No one's foible was safe from exposure and the faults of each were formally handed down. Mr. Collins was named "executor of this will" with full power to dispose of goods, chattels, opportunities and advantages.

Miss Irene Black read the class poem, of which Frank Caldwell was author. The lines were well thought out and all were stirred by appeal to "the dear old pennant white and red." Misses Helen Sorrells and Carrie Mackness followed with a violin duet and Miss Helen Harney then appeared to present the senior record book.

In former years it has been the custom to present to the junior class a large wooden spoon. This year a new practice was begun and in the blank book of records left behind, the incoming class may endeavor to write clear and large a successful record of toil and endeavor. John Perry responded for the juniors, assuring all that his class would be alive to its responsibility.

In the class prophecy Floyd Williamson followed a novel plan. Writing to Charles Peake from the Paris exposition in 1935 he traced the fortunes of each and revealed strange freaks of fate in the career of many.

Much time and thought was evidently employed in selection of the trophies for when Fred Mayer and Ruth Hackett gained the floor, laughter was incessant and fun unbounded.

The presents filled a large clothes basket and Miss Hackett bestowed the trophies with instruction for their use.

HUMMER MAY BE TAKEN OFF CHICAGO AND ALTON

It is rumored that a new time card is to go into effect next Sunday on the Chicago & Alton and that the "Hummer" which goes north through Jacksonville at 1:55 a. m., to be routed via Springfield. If this be true that would leave only one train out of the city going north. Agent D. C. Ditz has not been notified of the change and has written the company relative to the matter.

ART WORK IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS SET FORTH BY STRONG DISPLAY

Exhibit at High School Attracts Many Visitors who Inspect Work of Pupils under Direction of Miss Whitmer.

Art as taught in the Jacksonville schools was well displayed in the annual exhibit of pupils' work, held Monday and Tuesday at the high school building. The articles were grouped by wards and in each ward school section were shown examples of the work by grades. Miss Vivian Whitmer, city art teacher, was in charge and many were the parents and visitors embracing opportunity to see the exhibit. The instructor was in room 10 at the close of the class day exercises Tuesday night and a number saw the art display who had not done so before.

The excellence of the work bespoke much care and thoughtful labor throughout the year on the part of Miss Whitmer, and the pleasing arrangement of the displays was due also to her taste and judgment. The teachers in charge of each room deserve much credit for the proficiency attained, for without their careful co-operation no such degree of skill could have been attained by the pupils under them. Though pleasing in its results, art instruction is often tedious and exacting. So well was the work of the pupils done that no suggestions of laborious effort was there to mar the composite display in its richness of color and symmetry of outline.

Eye and hand come in for equal training in the ideal plan of teaching. While rifle and basketry may emphasize the manual aspect, still life studies and perspective drawing demand close training of the eye. Stenciling, with its opportunity of original conception in design, brings both hand and eye in close accord.

Nothing was more noteworthy in the whole exhibit than the progress shown by primary pupils. Free hand cuttings showed forth the forms of animals on background of blue or black. Free hand drawings in pencil illustrated remarkable skill for first and second grade children. All the scissors work was very clever and particularly interesting was the figure of a boy and kite, all cut free hand from white paper furnished for the purpose.

Color work was good in the displays of all the grades and the fine blending and harmony shown in some of the still life studies by high school pupils was highly commendable. Chiaroal sketches, excellently shaded, silhouette drawings, bold and black; with many-colored posters, worked in two and three color pattern of original design, gave beauty and variety to the display of well placed art objects.

To enumerate completely or criticize each group would not be practicable. Each kind of work displayed, represented some one step in the school art course and no article was there which did not fit in with the whole. Miss Whitmer is doing work of high order with the resources at her command and nothing could offer better testimony to this than the display of the past two days.

QUARANTINE REGULATIONS ARE TERMED "UNWARRANTABLE"

CHICAGO, May 24.—Quarantine regulations prohibiting the movement of all livestock from states which have not been infected with the foot and mouth disease were termed "unwarrantable" by the executive committee of the United States livestock sanitary association which met here today.

"As horses and mules are not susceptible to foot and mouth disease," the memorial adopted by the committee reads, "such animals should be exempted from state regulations prohibiting inter-state movement of such animals."

CANNON COMMENTS ON NOTE. San Francisco, May 25.—Congressman Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois and twelve colleagues arrived here today from Honolulu. Mr. Cannon said he had read the government's note to Germany about the Lusitania. "But," he added, "there are too many notes and no action."

PHELPS & OSBORNE

JACKSONVILLE RESIDENT GIVES HIS REMINISCENCE

E. S. Holton of the Old Peoples Home Was Early Friend of U. S. Grant—Were Schoolmates in an Ohio Village.

A very interesting and pleasing gentleman who links the past happily with the present is E. G. Holton, a resident of the Old Peoples Home on Grove street where he and his wife are quietly spending the evening of their lives in comfort and pleasant surroundings.

Mr. Holton has had some interesting experiences in his life and in response to the request of a Journal reporter narrated some of the incidents of his career.

He said substantially: "I was born in Minerva, Mason county, Kentucky, Sept. 22, 1831. My father was a farmer and a staunch believer in the bible and christianity. He was in early life a Baptist but later became a member of the Christian church in which faith he lived till called home from earth. His father was born in Virginia. My mother's maiden name was Sarah Tillman and she was a native of Tennessee and great-grand niece of Gen. George Washington, the father of his country. Her mother's name was Lewis, of a family related to the Washington family and during the war of the revolution one of the Lewis' managed the business affairs of Gen. Washington while the latter was in the army.

Saved Negroes Lives.

My paternal grandfather was a soldier of the war of 1812 and a man of some prominence and much against his will was twice elected to the state legislature. While serving in that capacity he had a peculiar experience. In the south if a negro had a great grudge against a man poison or fire were very likely to be used in getting even. Squire Pepper had fined an old negro and the latter was furious and bent on revenge. He sought two boys and gave them each a silver dollar to burn Squire Pepper's barn and as there were no matches those days the boys took a bucket and in it put a lot of live coals, took it to the barn and turned it over on the straw and soon the structure was in flames and totally destroyed.

The penalty was hanging when a negro committed such a misdemeanor and the poor boys were detected, tried and condemned. My grandfather was a kind hearted man and disliked to see the poor fellows swing for such an offense so he exerted himself tremendously to get a large petition for the pardon of the boys who really were the tools of the man who put them up to it. Over the land he went night and day in the kindness of his heart and succeeded in getting a large petition which he took to the governor and secured a pardon.

There were no telegraphs in those days and news traveled slowly and my father was in great fear that his efforts might after all be in vain and he rode a race with death to the county seat where the boys were imprisoned and arrived just as the nooses were being adjusted. The young fellows were truly thankful and were ready to do anything in the world for their kind benefactor. They had to be removed from the state so grandfather took them to Tennessee, not very far from Nashville. They were called Sam and Anthony and he secured for them a small farm covered with timber and put them to work cutting piles to be sent to New Orleans. He went back home and left the boys there and they were true and faithful to father and worked and faithfully.

Parents Are Married.

Within 16 years one was frozen to death and one was drowned so grandfather sent my father, a young man, to look after the farm and while he met my mother, a comely young woman, promptly fell in love with her and in due time they were married. The colored boys were set free on attaining their majority but didn't live many years to enjoy their freedom.

My father moved to Mason county, Kentucky, where I was born and lived a few years after and then moved across the Ohio river to the vicinity of Maysville where he lived the rest of his days. He established a landing which was named after him and was 65 miles above Cincinnati.

My father believed in education and sent me during the six months school year over near the old home to Beeley Creek church school called Woodlawn seminary but he brought me home to attend church and Sunday school in Maysville and always taught his family to be faithful to their church duties.

Goes to School With Grant.

After that I went two winters to a school at Georgetown, Brown county, Ohio and at that time was pretty well grown. I shall never forget a young man who attended at the same time. He was called Ulysses Grant, but we little thought of the career that awaited him. He was not at all bright in his studies and seemed very peculiar in that he scarcely ever joined the rest of us in our sports and we used to call him "Useless" and "Chickadee". He was good natured and seldom had a quarrel with any one but all soon found out it was very safe to let him alone. There was something in his calm exterior and the boy that did try strength with him always came out behind. He and I were very good friends and our teacher was John D. White, a man of great worth and one whom I shall always remember with respect and gratitude.

Grant's calm exterior bespoke a hidden power and somehow I felt its existence though I couldn't explain it. His father was a tanner and young Grant used to break the oak bark for the mill which ground it up for the vats and here is a picture of the plain brick home, the tanyard, the vats and the mill with the boy breaking bark into it and many a day I have helped him and the whole is fresh as yesterday in my mind.

My father used to take calf and steer hides to Grant's father and then made them into leather and then made the shoes for our family.

The boy Ulysses always strictly obeyed orders and was never troublesome or given to quarrelling but we could never understand why he failed to join us in our school boy sports and so while his obedient conduct gained for him the good will of the older people he wasn't very popular with the boys.

Grant's Appointment to West Point

In our vicinity was General Thomas Hamer, a veteran of the Mexican war, and a friend of the Grants and I myself well knew the father and grandfather of my schoolmate. When Gen. Hamer came home he went to Grant's father and asked him what he was going to do with Ulysses and the father said the boy seemed cut out for a soldier and he wished very much he could go to West Point but as so many were after the places he supposed it would be of no use to try to get Ulysses appointed. Gen. Hamer said he would try and see what could be done and accordingly he went to work at the task.

The friends of the boy were very anxious to see him get the appointment and finally the stage which carried the mail was to bring a letter which would tell the tale. The boy had lots of friends and we were all eager to learn the fate of the effort and crowded into the little postoffice till we filled it to suffocation. A well-known lawyer had a "standing in" with the postmaster and arranged with him to get the letter first and so he came to the office, elbowed his way through the throng which was jammed in the room and awaited the arrival of the lumbering old stage. Finally it pulled up at the door and then all was excitement and curiosity.

At last, after an interminable time the mail was opened and distributed and the lawyer took the letter, read it and waving it above his head shouted, "Ulysses Grant is appointed to West Point". A loud shout went up from the throats of all our young people for we wanted Ulysses to get the position and were glad that he succeeded. Grant's father and grandfather were quietly standing in a corner of the room when a man not far from them said: "Why are you making such a fuss and rejoicing? There are lots of young men in the district more capable than Ulysses. What will that chucklehead do at West Point anyhow?" The father and grandfather couldn't help hearing the remark but said nothing. Then the lawyer who had received the letter took the other man who had so derided Ulysses over to the father and grandfather and introduced him.

The man was fearfully embarrassed and chagrined and for a while said nothing but finally collecting himself he said in loud tone, "Gentlemen, boys! I'll pay for the cigars." And this seemed to set things right and make all in good humor. There were a good many girls present who couldn't enjoy the cigars but they gave their share to the boys and all was happy.

Lack of Business Qualities.

The young man used to go to school in Ripley and in Maysville to a man named Ran Richardson and it used to be said of him that he would rather take a boat and go fishing along the river than to study.

Even when a boy and a young man he showed the failure to conduct business that followed him all his life. After he was a man he used to tell this story on himself.

His father had a horse to sell and heard of a man who wanted one and taking the boy told him to ride the horse to the home of the man who wanted it and ask fifty dollars for him but take forty rather than fail of a sale.

"Faithfully he led the horse to the man and dutifully said 'Father wants to sell you this horse.' He told me to ask fifty dollars for him but to take $40 if you wouldn't give any more." Of course the man's best price was forty dollars.

We all liked the Grant family for they were good people and attended to their own business. I saw Ulysses several times before the war but not since. He always remembered me and we were good friends.

TWO FIRE ALARMS.

The fire department responded to two alarms Monday evening. One was on South Clay avenue and was caused by the burning of a pile of rubbish. The second alarm came from the Illinois college. The students celebrating the victory of the track team at Peoria had set fire to a large number of boxes. Word was received by the department before it left the house thus saving the long run to college hill.

JUSTICE COURTS.

Tuesday Justice Coons gave his decision in the suit of Gladys and Grace Mallory against G. M. Luttrell. The plaintiffs sued for damages charging discrimination against them in the Majestic theatre. The courts decision was that the defendant was not guilty and he assessed all costs against the plaintiffs.

MEN WERE INJURED.

H. A. Watson of Centralia, an employee of the C. B. and Q., while unloading freight in the local yard yesterday had the misfortune to mash his left thumb severely.

Edward Meneses of 722 Hurd street, section manager of the Burlington, lost the end of the fourth finger of his left hand Tuesday as the result of getting his hand caught between two railroad ties.

DOWN'S MURDER TRIAL MOVES RAPIDLY IN CIRCUIT COURT

Unwritten Law is the Defense Which Attorney Hairgrove Has Presented—Case Likely to Reach Jury Early Today.

As indicated in Tuesday's Journal William N. Hairgrove in his presentation of the case for the defense to the jury in the Downs murder case pleaded justification under the "Unwritten Law". Mr. Hairgrove's address was exceptionally strong. He cited many cases of the carrying out of the unwritten law and pointed to that fact that in more than 200 years no man who had taken advantage of it had paid the extreme penalty.

During the entire day and especially in the afternoon, the court was packed to almost suffocation. Many of those present were there as witnesses others as jurors. The majority, however, were there through morbid curiosity. It is to be regretted that during a part of the afternoon there were a number of young girls present. Apparently they were school girls and it seems more than passing strange that the parents of these girls should give them liberties that would make it possible for them to attend such a trial.

Contrary to expectations nothing startling developed in the testimony of the witnesses either for the prosecution or the defense. The main reason possibly for this was that Judge Burton held the attorneys down to a strict interpretation of the law. Many questions were asked of witnesses which would have shown what had been said by White and what had been said by parties to Downs. The court would not permit the answering of such questions. In the case of Edward Brown the court after having the jury retire permitted the witness to tell what White had told the witness (Brown) about Downs' wife.

Perhaps the best witness of the day, not excepting even Downs, was Ruth White, the 11 years old daughter of Fred White. She told of all the happenings at the house on the morning that Downs killed White and gave a clearer account than Downs himself.

Downs' testimony did not develop much. He told of events for about ten days prior that finally led up to the shooting. Mr. Hairgrove endeavored to get what had been told Downs by other parties as to the relations between Downs' wife and White. The defense objected strenuously to all such questions. Downs was subjected to but little examination by the prosecution.

Judge Burton adjourned court at 4:30 with practically all of the evidence in. At the convening of court this morning Er. J. M. Woulfe who furnished medicine to Downs on the day to shot White will take the stand. With the end of the trial in sight it is an established fact that Mr. Hairgrove in his argument to the jury will plead extenuation under the unwritten law.

GIRLS WITH BEAUTIFUL FACES OR GRACEFUL FIGURES

American girls have a world-wide reputation for beauty, but, at the same time, there are girls in our cities who possess neither beauty of face nor form, because in these instances they suffer from nervousness, the result of disorders of the womanly organism. At regular intervals they suffer so much that their strength leaves them; they are so prostrated that it takes days for them to recover their strength. Of course, such periodic distress has its bad effect on the nervous system. The withered and drawn faces, the dark circles and crow's feet about the eyes, the straight figure without those curves which lend so much to feminine beauty are the unmistakable signs of womanly disorders.

When a girl becomes a woman, when a woman becomes a mother, when women pass through through the changes of middle life, are to the three periods of life when health and strength are most needed to withstand the pain and distress of men caused by severe organic disturbances.

At these critical times women are best fortified by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, an old remedy of proved worth that keeps the entire female system perfectly regulated and in excellent condition.

Mothers, if your daughters are weak, lack ambition, are troubled with headaches, lassitude and are pale and sickly, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is just what they need to surely bring the bloom of health to their cheeks and make them strong and healthy.

If you are a sufferer, if your daughter, mother, sister need help get Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in liquid or tablet form. Then address Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive confidential advice from a staff of specialists, women's diseases sent free.—Adv.

FREE EXHIBIT IN DOMESTIC SCIENCE.

The Department of Home Economics of Illinois Woman's College will hold its annual exhibition beginning Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and continuing until Thursday evening at 9 o'clock. The exhibit this year will be unusually good and of special interest to all. There is no charge for admission; all are cordially invited to enjoy this exhibit.

Y. M. C. A. COMMITTEE HELD MEETING LAST NIGHT

State Secretary Shumaker Emphasized Great Work in State Campaign for Funds to Begin Today.

The gathering last evening at the Y. M. C. A. campaign headquarters was quite well attended and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. A splendid supper was served and greatly enjoyed by every one present.

Dr. F. A. McCarty in a very happy way introduced the speaker. He said he recently married a couple, one of whom was a German and one from England and he wondered if the war was over or had just begun. Jacksonville must have a place where young men may go for a pleasant evening and for a home when needed amid good influences.

He then called on State Secretary Shumaker who proceeded with the main address of the evening. The gentleman is deeply interested in the great work. He said Jacksonville was one of 102 association in the state and was only one or two where there is a good building not debt free. The other place was Monmouth.

In the state $3,500,000 has been raised for the work and in the county $75,000,000 and the wonder is how it has all been brought about and the answer is that the campaign has not been weak and sentimental but vigorous and strong and appealing to vigorous manhood. There was no need to inquire what had become of the money raised seven years ago. He had built a house and it had cost twice as much as expected and so had the local association reconstructed their building and it had cost money.

The stereopticon was then lighted and some very fine and interesting slides were shown, among them the picture of the founder, buildings at various great centers and accompanying them was an earnest, instructive lecture setting forth the great end and aim of the work.

The several committees will begin work today and it is expected to raise the entire amount in three days. The captains of teams are G. H. Kopper, W. B. Miser, C. H. Weber, R. I. Dunlap, W. E. Spoons and E. B. Spink.

A. F. Morris and wife and Mrs. Tom Harvey spent Monday in Jacksonville shopping.

The Royal Neighbors had a called meeting Friday afternoon in the Woodman hall, when Mrs. Sam Coultas was taken into their lodge as a member.

W. D. Hitt was a Jacksonville caller Saturday.

Mrs. Paul Waterfield and baby and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chrisman were Jacksonville shoppers Saturday.

Children's day will be observed in the M. E. church the 2d Sunday evening in June.

Wert Morris and wife were Winchester visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Julia Ferguson returned to her home in Jacksonville Saturday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Hitt for several weeks.

Paul Waterfield went to Wrigg's, Ill., where he will work on the elevator that is being erected there.

Miss Marie Grady returned home Sunday after spending two weeks in Winchester, the guest of her sister Mrs. Bert Carry.

The new threshing machine and engine which were purchased this spring by Sam Snow and Tom Lankford have arrived. The boys no doubt expect to make it hum before many days, as they have engaged several hundred acres of grain to thresh in and around this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Carry of Winchester were Sunday guests at the home of John Gmady. Rev. Ray Bracewell was also a guest at the Grady home Sunday evening.

STORAGE HOUSE AT SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND.

Bids have been asked for the building of a storage house at the State School for the Blind. The plans call for a building approximately 25x35 feet with two stories and a basement. The upper stories will be used for the storing of clothing, groceries and other supplies. The basement will be used for the storage of vegetables and meats. The appropriation for the building is $6,500.

CAUGHT IN STORM.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson had a rather terrifying experience yesterday morning. They were on their way home from Woodson in their automobile when the storm struck them. They put on the chains and fastened—long and managed to get to the city but they had several close calls from falling limbs of trees and other things. Mr. Anderson can get along in mud and rain but prefers good roads and dry weather.

THE GREETERS CONVENTION

Major Joan A. Vickery of the Dunlap has received notice of the annual convention of the Greeters of America which will meet in Atlanta, Ga., June 1, 2, and 3. This is a national association of hotel clerks and does much to further their interests.

Jacksonville boasts of three members of the order, the others being George W. Scott of the Pacific and J. S. McHenry, night clerk of the Dunlap.

Major Vickery is a charter member of the organization and attended the first convention of the order which was held in St. Louis. Major Vickery also is the second oldest active hotel clerk in the United States. The only one outranking him in point of service being Bob Wilkerson of the Harper house in Rock Island. Major Vickery will have served his thirty-fifth year at the Dunlap this fall. Prior to that he spent five years at the old Park hotel, being there when Mr. Dunlap, the owner, changed the name from the Mansion house to Park hotel.

TRAFFIC IN WOMEN.

The following paper was read by Mrs. H. B. Daniel at the W. C. T. U. institute at Meredosia, and by request of the institute is published in the county papers.

The terrible cancer on the body politic, comes from the impure blood, and poison breath of the liquor traffic.

When alcohol is completely annihilated the white slave traffic will die, as many other things do when the fountain head is shut off. But we cry, howling, oh Lord, how long, until this awful source of iniquity is stopped, and while we wait until we may hurl our little white ballots in such quantity that the stream may be forever stopped, we will do what we can to keep our boys and girls from the scarlet pathway, that leads to death.

First, we should demand "a white life for two." Do you know, beloved, that a woman can be very foolish and deadly cruel? She will pull off her virtuous robes, and let them touch the unclean world, and yet she will clasp hands with the man who made the woman unclean? Until we learn to hate the sin, and love the sinner, we are sorry subjects to undertake a reform of any kind. The woman who is not pure enough to seek to prevent sin, and feel a great heart yearning pity for the sinner, had better clean up. We get the wrong idea, that our 60,000 girls who are yearly sold, soul and body, come from the slums, or of poor, ignorant or vicious parentage. Ninety per cent of them are girls who would have made good wives and mothers.

Our first remedy is through child training. Teach your boys and girls that their bodies are sacred—that they are the temples of the soul—that if their bodies are defiled by sin, not only they must suffer, but their children and their children's children will also suffer. Your boy should be as innocent and pure as your girl.

LOSING HOPE WOMAN VERY ILL

Finally Restored To Health
By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bellevue, Ohio.—"I was in a terrible state before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back ached until I thought it would break, I had pains all over me, nervous feelings and periodic troubles. I was very weak and run down and was losing hope of ever being well and strong. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I improved rapidly and today am a well woman. I cannot tell you how happy I feel and I cannot say too much for your Compound. Would not be without it in the house if it cost three times the amount."—Mrs. CHAS. CHAPMAN, R. F. D. No. 7, Bellevue, Ohio.

Woman's Precious Gift.

The one which she should most zealously guard, is her health, but it is the one most often neglected, until some ailment peculiar to her sex has fastened itself upon her. When so affected such women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a remedy that has been wonderfully successful in restoring health to suffering women.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

"I know it will stand the test of hard usage because it's built right from the ground up—out of the highest grade materials, by men who know how. It's the tire that keeps down the up-keep."

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

London, May 25.—(9:45 p. m.)—A report received from Field Marshal Sir John French under date of May 25th, says:

"Some portions of our line east of Ypres, which were lost yesterday during the enemy's gas attack have not yet been recovered. This amount of gas used was greater than on any previous occasion—over a front of five miles.

"The gas was emitted from cylinders throughout a period of four and a half hours and at the same time our line was bombarded with asphyxiating shells. The gas cloud rose in places forty feet high from the ground.

"Portions of the line remained intact throughout the ordeal and our men have demonstrated that, with due precautions, this form of attack can be met and defeated."

Paris, May 25.—(10:35 p. m.)—The official communication issued by the war office announces tonight that important progress has been made by the allies to the north of Arras and that one of the large German trenches in the neighborhood of Souchez, for the possession of which fighting has been going on for more than two weeks has been captured.

The text is as follows: "To the north of Arras our attacks have resulted in important progress. To the northwest of Angres (South of la-Bassee) in front of Fosse Calonne we carried the salient of a large enemy work called Cornailles. In the same region our troops took by assault another German works which was very strongly fortified.

More to the south, to the east of the road from AixNoulette to Souchez, we have captured on a front of one kilometer (two-thirds of a mile) the whole of a great trench, where the enemy had been resisting for 15 days.

"To the west of the same road we have made very appreciable progress in the ravine of the Ford De Buval, our access to which the artillery of the enemy, posted at Angres, and the defensive organization which was particularly strong had prevented until now.

"We have gained some ground to the west of Souchez near the Chateau Carlel.

"On the rest of the front there is nothing to report."

Vienna, Austria, May 25.—Via London (7:50 p. m.)—Supplementing the previous Austrian official statement relative to the fighting on Monday along the Italian east coast, the Austrian war department today says:

"The Austrian destroyer Scharfschutze penetrated the narrow canal at Porto Corsini till it ranged quite close to the fully defended Italian trenches.

"Hidden Italian batteries suddenly opened fire with twelve centimeter guns against the Austrian scout ship Novora and a torpedo boat lying before the canal entrance and killed many of their own troops, who were taken by surprise.

"An Italian shell hit the officer's mess room of the torpedo boat, causing her to sprink a leak. In order to help the destroyer and the torpedo boat out of their precarious position, the Novara began a flanking fire against the trenches, demolishing the barracks but itself being struck several times. A lieutenant and four men were killed and several men wounded. The enemy's losses were perhaps twenty times heavier.

"The Scharfschutze escaped undamaged. The torpedo boat was assisted to Pola. At Rimini (about 90 miles south of Venice) the armored cruiser Sankt George bombarded the railway station and bridge. At Senigallia (about 25 miles northwest of Ancona) the battleship Zrinyi demolished the railway bridge and water tank, the harbor works, the station and a railway train.

"At Ancona the greater part of the fleet bombarded the old fortifications, the artillery and cavalry

Supt. Collins Makes Reply

The following statement was issued yesterday by Supt. Collins in reply to a statement by Dick Reynolds in regard to his suspension.

First, as to whether Dick Reynolds received any notice that the football boys would be suspended at 2:30 p. m. Friday, May 21st, unless they returned their sweaters to Brennan's store and leave them there until school is out, and agree to study six hours on Monday. Wednesday, the superintendent took Dick's statement as to why he took the sweater before school was out, and that time notified him he would probably decide next day what should be done and this alone should have put Dick on inquiry.

Second, Miss Uzzell, one of the substitute teachers, was requested Thursday afternoon to inform all of the football boys to be in the superintendent's office 8:30 a. m. Friday; that she afterwards informed the superintendent that everyone was notified to be here at that time, and later, again notified said superintendent that she had informed Dick of the meeting Thursday afternoon in the hall of the high school building.

Third, Friday morning at 8:30 or soon thereafter, all the boys came to the office except Frank Robinson, James Haigh and Dick Reynolds; and after the superintendent informed all of these boys what they should do, the terms of which have heretofore been stated, he requested Miss Uzzell to get the parents over the phone of each one of the boys who did not come; that Miss Uzzell secured Mrs. Robinson and the superintendent explained to her the difficulty and the matter was soon settled with Frank Robinson. Next Miss Uzzell secured Mr. and Mrs. Haigh and the matter was settled so far as James Haigh was concerned. Finally, Miss Uzzell secured Mr. Reynolds, Dick's father, and informed him that Mr. Collins wanted to see Dick, and Mr. Reynolds replied that Dick was not there. Then Miss Uzzell said that Mr. Collins was very anxious to see Dick at his office and started to say to Mr. Reynolds that Mr. Collins would like to talk to him but before she could do so, Mr. Reynolds cut in and said, "What is it about, is it about that sweater deal?" Miss Uzzell said, "Yes." Then Mr. Reynolds said, "If I were in Dick's place I would never go to see him." Miss Uzzell said, "Well, that is all we want to know," put up the phone and related to the superintendent what Mr. Reynolds had said to her.

Note, this conversation took place in the presence of Miss George, Warren Maddox, and Mr. Hopper, the truancy officer, and was in plenty of time for Mr. Reynolds to have notified Dick to come to see the superintendent.

This is our evidence as to whether or not Dick had notice. However, this notice has little to do with Dick Reynolds being graduated from the Jacksonville high school, as I will try to show you.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds went to the law office of Worthington, Reeves and Greene, and they talked with Mr. Reeves about legal proceedings, and soon after this conversation Mr. Greene came to my office at the request of Mr. Reeves, as I am informed. Mr. Greene said, "We want to settle this matter for Dick and we want to know what is necessary to be done."

The superintendent said to Mr. Greene, "Dick Reynolds in his statement in the Courier, May 21, among other things, said the following:

"I consider it too petty a proposition to cause trouble with the graduation of Seniors.  The whole proposition seems to me as baby play on the part of the parties concerned in bringing up this controversy. ***"

"I consider my sweater as my property and do not intend under any consideration to return it to Mr. Brennan. ***"

The superintendent then stated to Mr. Greene, since Dick has made these statements in public against the Board of Education, that he should retract them in public, and in addition to this do the same as was required of the other boys, and then he could be graduated the same as the others."

The superintendent has since been informed that the above proposition was submitted to Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds through their attorneys, while Dick was in St. Louis, and they said that Dick should not submit to the terms.

Dick returned from St. Louis Sunday and in plenty of time to get this information before Monday morning if he wanted to do what was right in the matter and settle his difficulty the same as the other boys.

The superintendent wishes to say in order that the people may know that neither the board nor himself has anything against Dick Reynolds and their only object is to give fair treatment to all; that Dick Reynolds still has the privilege to make this public retraction and do the same thing as is required from the other boys, and he graduated at the same time as the other Seniors.

The only thing asked of Mr. Greene at that time and is still asked now, is that the wording of the retraction be made satisfactory to the Board of Education.

In conclusion, the superintendent wishes to say that no student has ever prejudiced or attempted to prejudice him against Dick Reynolds; and that Dick Reynolds has always stood well with him; and that he regrets very much the attitude he has assumed in this matter; and believes that if his father and mother had taken the same stand as the fathers and mothers of some of the other boys in this trouble, Dick would have done as they did and he would now be free to be graduated Thursday, May 27th, from the Jacksonville high school; that there is no reason why Dick Reynolds should be made an exception; that he is no better than the other boys who have been punished for their disobedience; that the Board could not make an exception of Dick Reynolds' case and at the same time maintain order, discipline and lawfulness in the Jacksonville public schools; that if Dick wilfully chooses to disobey and persist in that course, then he must suffer the consequences and has no one to blame but himself, if he is not graduated at the same time with the remainder of his class.

MARKET LETTERS

Oliver S. Green with Walter Bros. Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill., reports the estimate for Monday, May 24, 18,000 cattle, 45,000 hogs and 10,000 sheep. The first call of the run today was 20,000 cattle and 42,000 hogs and buying side was free to give out the dope, prices would be slow and 10c lower. For the cattle market would be slow and generally 10c lower, and it was well along in the forenoon before much was done, and when the run was cut to 18,000 and the hog run raised to 47,000 or 48,000 the market became fairly active and the bulk of the sales fully steady, and the light short fleshed and plain heavy cattle were close to a steady basis. 752 cars of the run went into the free division. There were considerable that sold for 8.50 to 9c in the run. In the modified section a few prime yearlings made 8.35 with a few others 8.25 to 9.30. Prime heavy cattle in the free area averaging 1600 reached 9.05, and a liberal quota from 8.80 to 9c and there was a formidable showing from 8.50 to 8.75 with weight, and a long string at 8.20 to 8.40. Steers and heifers sold in the modified division at 9.25, averaging 1801. In the free division 1108 pound yearlings made 9.50, and some that weighed around 855 at 9.05, and some reached 9.35. There is a good outlet for all desirable fat cattle. Chicago had approximately half of the crop at the six western markets. With 14,000 in the free division, the run was so short in the modified area that there was very little difference noted in the prices. Butcher stock was better than last week on a light run and many steady with last Thursday. Fat cattle were in good call. The discrimination was against dairy cows. Bulls sold strong to higher. The calf trade was weak and some sold 25c under last week. Although there was only a moderate run, medium and fat cows, 5.20 to 5.10, heifers 6.50 to 8c, prime steers and heifers today $1.00 to 1.25 higher. Bulls 5 to 7.35.

Early the hog market looked 5 to 10 lower on the estimated report of 42,000 but later when it was known that there would be 47,000 to 48,000, closing market was 10 to 15c lower.

The big end of the hog run was in the free area and packers were liberal purchasers. Top 7.65. Most sheep steady with last weeks close. Bulk were ewes. All classes 10 to 15 higher. Spring lambs were steady. Very few wetters or yearlings on the market. Clip lambs reached 10.35, a new record. Fed winter clip lambs 6 to 10.25. Fed western clip ewes, 4.35 to 6.35. Native spring lambs 8 to 12.50. Clip bulks 4 to 6c. Native clipped ewes 3.50 to 6.75. Native clipped lambs 7.50 to 10 dollars. Yours respectfully, O. S. Green.

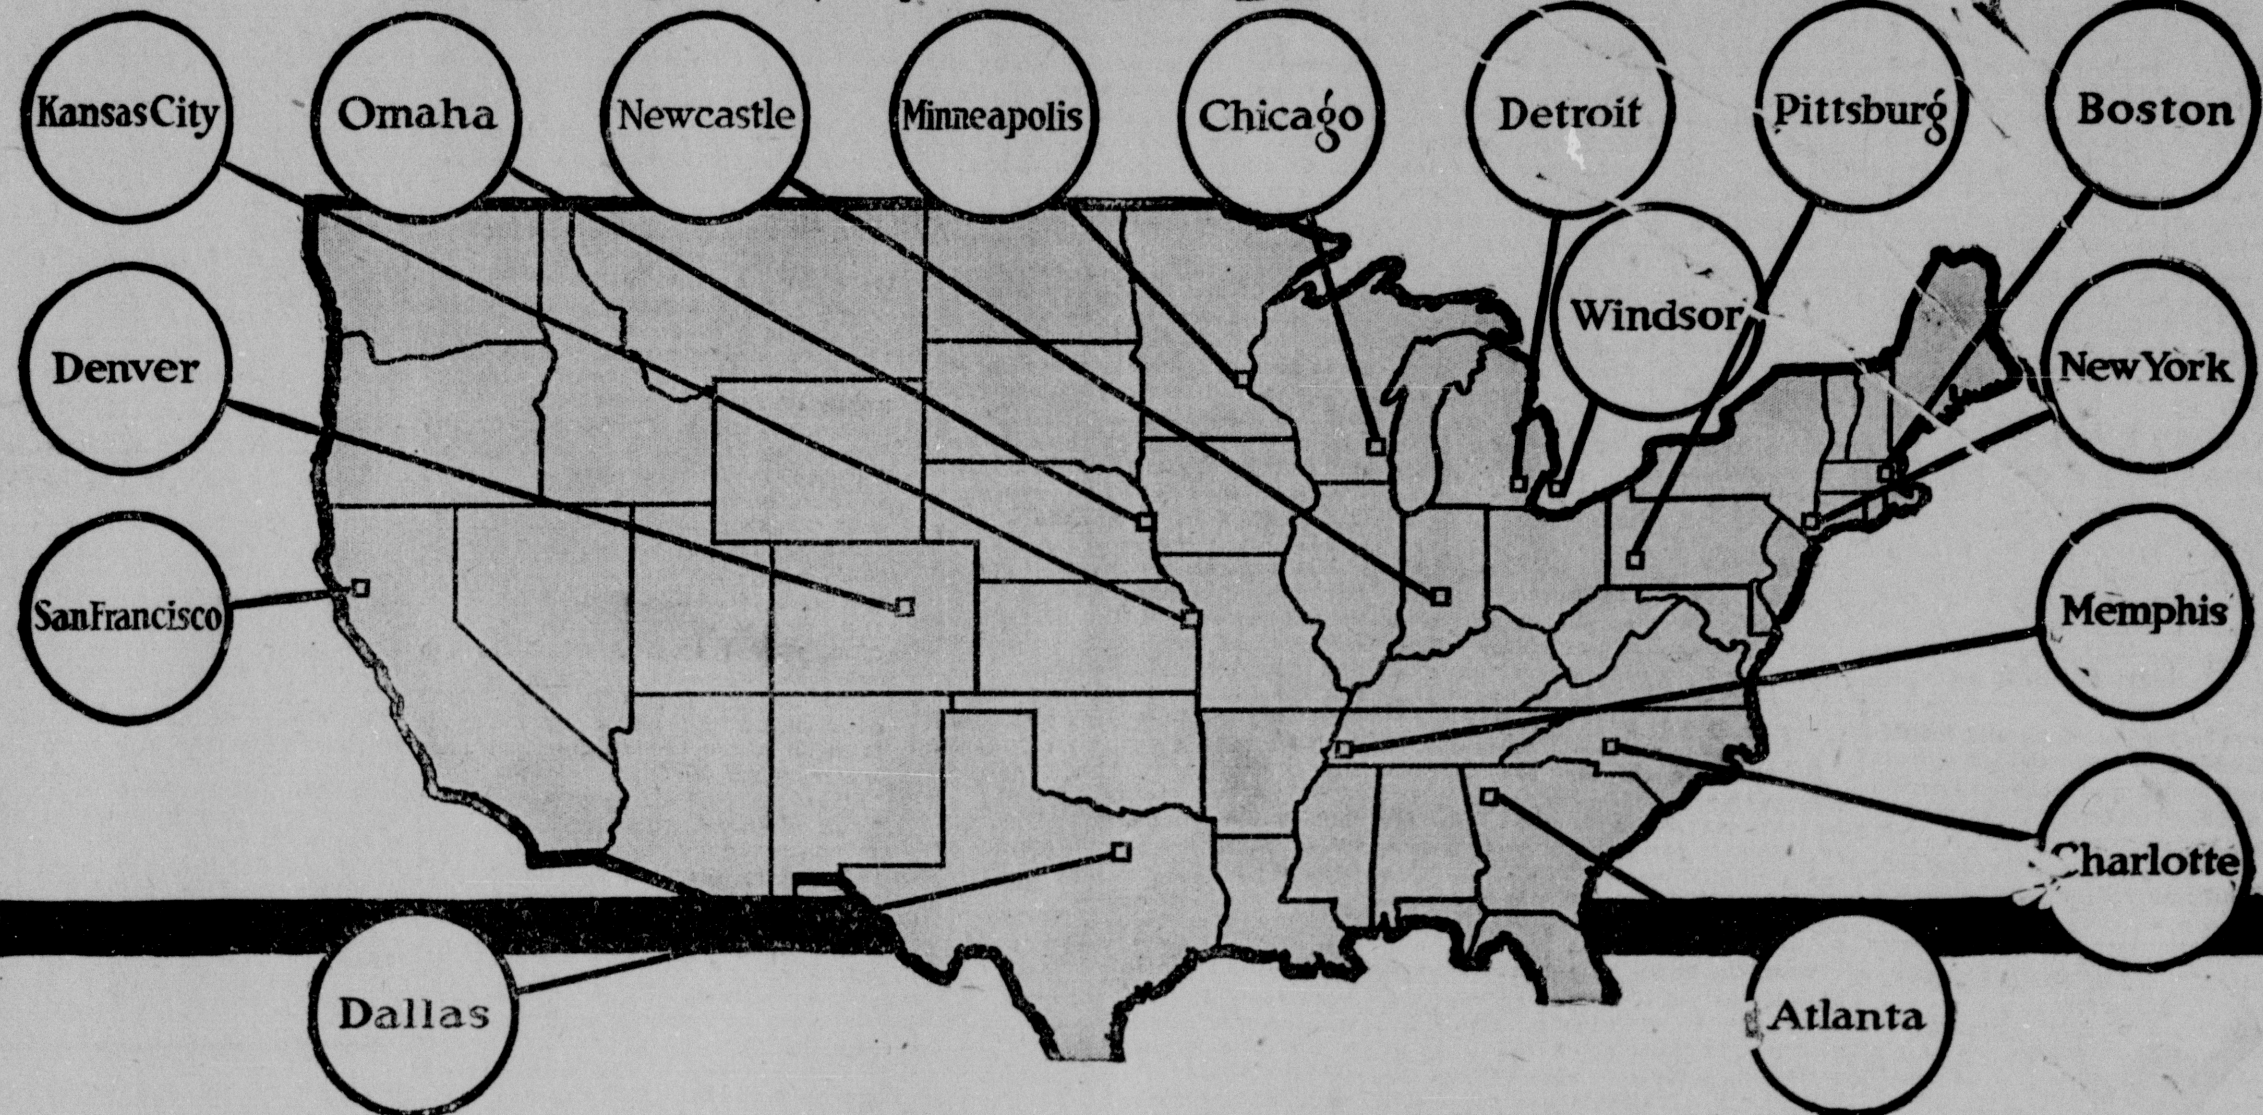

KANSAS CITY MARKET.

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 24—Total cattle receipts here last week were normal for the season, about 22,000 head, but the number of stockers and feeders included was smallest of the year, shipments out about 5,000 head. This number going out was 4,000 less than during the previous week, and 1200 less than corresponding week last year, but the entire supply was cleaned up close. Sales during the week were 10 to 15 higher than during the previous week, fleshy feeders of first quality selling at $8 to $8.40 and most of the stockers at $7.35 to $8.00, top stock steers $8.25. There was a wide variety of offered, shipments from every quarter in the west being received here at this season, including hay fed Montana cattle, pulp fed Colorados, and good bred Oklahoma and Panhandle cattle. Receipts today were 6,000 head, and included a larger percentage of stockers and feeders than came in last week. Some fancy black feeders sold at the top price today, $8.35, weighing 1000 pounds, and some plain feeders brought $7.50. Stock cows and heifers are in active demand, at prices close to the high point of the season, good stock cows and heifers at $6.50 to $7.40, and fancy yearling heifers for breeding purposes up to $8.25. With respect to the manner of handling stockers and feeders going out now, Kansas buyers as a rule summer graze their cattle without other feed, Missouri men feed their cattle on the grass, while some Michigan and Indiana buyers here last week were looking for light stock steers, with the intention of grazing them through the grass season, and feeding for the winter and spring markets next year.

NAME RECEIVER FOR LINCOLN MINING COMPANY. Lincoln, Ill., May 24—A receiver was appointed today for the Latham Mining Company of Lincoln, following a suit for foreclosure filed by the Sangamon Loan & Trust Co. The mining company had failed to redeem a large part of a $90,000 bond issue.

Maxwell

"The Wonder Car"

16 Great Service Branches—54 Maxwell District Offices—More than 2,000 Maxwell Dealers are always at the Service of Those Who Drive Maxwell Cars

When you buy an automobile you buy two kinds of service. First:—The service given and guaranteed by the car itself. Second:—The service given by the maker and the dealer while the car is in use.

The service the Maxwell car gives is known. 38,000 satisfied Maxwell owners have given the car the rough and tumble acid test of fully eighteen months' service. The Maxwell has shown that it is able to stand up under the severest use. In cities, over country roads, through mud and sand and up the steepest mountains, the 1915 Maxwell has made good for 38,000 owners.

THE SERVICE THAT THE MAXWELL MOTOR COMPANY GIVES

The service that the Maxwell car gives cannot be questioned. Any automobile owner from time to time requires service from the maker of the car he drives. He sometimes needs new parts, adjustments, etc.

16 GREAT MAXWELL SERVICE BRANCHES

The Maxwell Motor Company takes care of Maxwell owners by maintaining 16 great Maxwell Service Branches. These branches are in great cities which have been selected in such a manner as to thoroughly cover the United States. They can deliver parts to any Maxwell dealer or Maxwell owner within a few hours.

54 MAXWELL DISTRICT OFFICES

54 Maxwell District Offices are maintained in leading cities. This means 54 District Managers, each with a corps of assistants. A great big part of the work of this army of skilled men is to see that Maxwell dealers give real Maxwell service to Maxwell owners.

MORE THAN 2,000 MAXWELL DEALERS ALWAYS AT YOUR SERVICE

Each of the Maxwell dealers in the United States and Canada is an automobile expert. Anyone of them stands ready at all times to give advice and assistance to any Maxwell owner. You can tour all of the United States and Canada and should your car require the attention of an expert you will find a Maxwell dealer near at hand. If you need a replacement part, and the dealer does not have it in stock, he can get it for you from the nearest Maxwell branch within a few hours.

Maxwell owners never have their cars out of service for days or weeks at a time waiting for replacement parts.

The $695 Maxwell "Wonder Car" is the greatest real automobile value ever offered. The service that the Maxwell Motor Company gives is not surpassed by the service given by any other automobile manufacturing organization in the world.

Read This List of Expensive Features. The 1915 Maxwell Has These Features And Many Others.

Attractive Streamline Body

Pure streamline body; graceful crown fenders, with all rivets concealed. All the grace, style and "snap" that you will find in any of the highest priced cars.

A High-Tension Magneto

Nearly all the high priced cars have high tension magnetos. A high tension magneto gives positive ignition. The Simms magneto, with which the Maxwell is equipped, is recognized as one of the best magnetos made.

Left Side Drive—Central Control

Left side steer with gear shifting levers in center of driving compartment—center control—has been accepted by leading makers of expensive automobiles as the safest and most comfortable for the driver; that is why the Maxwell has it. The Maxwell is so easy to drive and control that a child can handle it.

Three-Speed Sliding Gear Transmission

All high priced cars have a sliding gear transmission. It is costly to make, but it is the best. If the motor has the power, sliding gears will pull the car out of any mud or sand. The Maxwell has a three-speed selective sliding gear transmission because Maxwell engineers do not consider any other type to be worthy of the Maxwell car.

Double-Shell Radiator with Shock Absorbing Device

The Maxwell radiator is of handsome design, gracefully curved, and it is built to be trouble proof. It is the expensive double shell type and has ample cooling capacity. The radiator is mounted to the frame by means of a shock absorbing device on each side, which relieves the radiator of all twists and distortions of the frame, caused by roughness of the road. The shock absorbing device also minimizes the possibility of radiator leaks.

The Roomy Full 5-Passenger Body Adjustable Front Seat

The 1915 Maxwell has a full grown 5-passenger body. The front seat is adjustable, you can move it three inches forward or backward. This makes the car really comfortable for the driver. No cramped legs for tall people or uncomfortable reaching for short people. Most drivers' seats are made to fit anyone—so fit no one.

Low "Up-keep" Carburetor

The carburetor used on the Maxwell was especially designed for it after long and severe tests under every conceivable condition. Economy tours conducted by hundreds of dealers and owners in different sections of the country have proved its efficiency, its quick response to throttle and its extremely low consumption of gasoline. It has been termed the "low up-keep" carburetor.

Irreversible Steering Gear

The greatest margin of safety has been provided in the steering gear of the 1915 Maxwell. The Maxwell irreversible steering mechanism is of the expensive worm-and-gear type and its superiority over every other type lies in its many adjustments. At no time is more than a fourth of the bearing surface of the gear which operates the worm in use. When needed, a new bearing surface may be had by adjusting the gear a quarter of a turn. In short, the Maxwell steering gear has four times the adjustment of any other kind.

Heavy Car Comfort

What surprises most people is the smooth, buoyant riding qualities of the Maxwell. The spring suspension of the 1915 Maxwell is the same costly combination of long semi-elliptical front springs and the three-quarter elliptic rear springs that is used on most heavy weight, high priced cars. The Maxwell offers you every essential of the highest priced machines at a fifth of their cost.

One Size of Tire—Anti-Skids on Rear

The Maxwell car is one of the easiest cars in the world on tires. Maxwell owners carry but one spare tire and but one size of spare tubes. Economical 30 inch x 3 1/2 inch tires are used all around. A famous make of anti-skid tires are supplied on rear wheels.

A Dependable Electric Starter

For $55 extra, you can have your Maxwell delivered equipped with the famous Simms-Huff electric starter. This starter is efficient, trouble proof and easily operated. And the Maxwell is completely equipped from the clear vision, ventilating windshield at the front to the spare tire carrier at the rear.

The Maxwell Company's Guarantee of Service to Maxwell Owners

No other automobile is backed by a more reliable service than that guaranteed every Maxwell owner. More than 2,000 Maxwell dealers—in every part of this country—are always ready to give expert advice, to make adjustments, and to supply new parts at reasonable prices. This splendid Maxwell dealer service organization is perfected and completed by the chain of Maxwell owned and Maxwell operated Service Branches. Sixteen great Maxwell Service Stations are so located throughout the country that a Maxwell dealer can supply any part for an owner within a few hours if not in his stock. Maxwell Service is one of the great advantages enjoyed by Maxwell owners.

Order a Maxwell from us now, and when you want it delivered, we will give you your car—not an excuse on delivery day

Men Pay Homage to Mother's Friend

"I am not surprised to observe the number of men who come into the store to purchase 'Mother's Friend,'" remarked a leading druggist.

The expectant mother if she has heard of this splendid emolument is probably not reading the papers to no extent. And if she does it is a happy thought to send hubby to the drug store. "Mother's Friend" is applied externally over the abdominal muscles.

It is a gentle, soothing lubricant, penetrates to the fine network of nerve beneath the skin and has a marked tendency to relieve the muscular strain to which these broad, flat abdominal muscles are subjected. The cords, tendons and ligaments are thus permitted to stretch without the corresponding surface strain so often involved during the period of expectation. This in part accounts for the entire absence, in many cases reported, of nausea, morning sickness and other distresses. And particularly to young mothers is this remedial application of inestimable value since in thus keeping the muscles firm but pliant it enables them to go through the ordeal without laceration of the cuticle as so often the case when this gentle form of lubrication is neglected.

"Mother's Friend" is highly recommended by a host of women. Write Bradford Regulator Co., 508 Lamy Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and we will send you a valuable little book to expectant mothers.

The effect of this splendid external application is an expression of the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

NAPLES.

Since our recent rains of past several days the river has raised over a foot, and still the frequent light showers keep the water cloudy and muddy.

The steamer "Bald Eagle" now makes her regular two trips a week.

Saturday the excursion boat Columbia made the trip from Pearl to Beards town and return with a large party of excursionists. The Columbia is a fine boat and her three decks were all comfortably loaded with a finely dressed crowd.

The boat newly painted and a string of high colored streamers from stem to stern made a beautiful picture. The day was ideal for an outing. We are not advertising any boat or company but via boat is a very nice way to spend a day with friends and eating luncheon out in the open air.

The prospects for all crops, but peaches, never were better in this locality. We hear of some little fly and rust in wheat, but so far not serious.

Some farmers done planting corn, others soon will be. The general health in this locality is good.

YOUNGBLOOD PRAIRIE.

Gus Henry was a county seat visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Henry, C. F. Story, Jacob Morris and son Clyde and Walter Newby were all in Jacksonville Saturday.

John Casey Sr., is spending a few days with his son John.

Born, Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dalton, a son.

Dorrie Henry, son of Peyton Henry, was taken to a hospital in Jacksonville last week for an operation for appendicitis and at last accounts was getting along nicely.

James Kelley is building a new barn where the hedge was located.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dalton attended the meeting of the Rebekahs in Jacksonville last week.

It is likely that the recent rains have done much to destroy chinch bugs and fly: crops generally are very promising; corn is looking well though a few have had to do some re-planting; alfalfa is yielding well and is being harvested; clover promises well and in general things are encouraging.

The Quality Car

$600 Touring Model, Equipped Complete, Including Electric starter and Electric Lights

The attractive price of this car is the least of its distinctive features. For instance, consider its fibre grip gearless transmission, which does away entirely with all clutch and gear trouble. More than this, it reduces cost of up-keep, and makes it a perfectly safe car for your wife or daughter to drive. It is delightfully easy riding and handsomely finished—a car any owner may justly feel proud of.

Gray & Davis electric starter and electric lights, search lights having both large and small outfits. Plate glass rain-vision built-in wind shield. Stream line body, instant one-man top. Tufted upholstery, deep cushions, 32-inch wire or artillery wheels, 3 1/2-inch Goodrich clincher tires, 108-inch wheel base, standard tread, gasoline gauge, signal horn, speedometer, Hyatt roller bearings, Bosch magneto, tools, etc.

MADER MILL IN WINCHESTER TO MAKE WAY FOR RESIDENCES

Large Number Witnesses Razing of Smokestack—Miss Margaret Carey Dies—Other Winchester Notes.

A large crowd gathered at the Mader Mill, one of the oldest in Scott county, Tuesday morning to witness the razing of the large brick smokestack, the first step in removing the mill to make way for some modern residences. The smokestack was 56 feet high, 6 1/2 feet square at the base with walls 22 inches thick. It contained 50,000 bricks. The lot on which the building stands has been purchased by Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Eckman.

The mill was erected by G. B. Bacon in 1852 and was operated by him for several years. Mr. Bacon then disposed of the property and removed to Denver, Colo. In 1857 William C. Gwinn became the owner of the property and in 1864 it was purchased by a Mr. Kersey. After changing hands several times the property was again purchased by Mr. Kersey and in 1878 he sold it to George Mader, who operated the mill until his death a short time ago. In later years Mr. Mader was assisted in the business by his son, Grant Mader. For many years the Mader mill was the only flour mill in Scott county.

Miss Margaret Carey Dies.
Miss Margaret Carey, who has been in failing health for several months, passed away Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruark. The deceased suffered a paralytic stroke last Friday and gradually grew worse until the end.

Miss Carey was born in New York City April 30, 1830 and had been a resident of Winchester for the past two years. She was a woman well liked by a wide circle of friends. Funeral services will be held at the late residence Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in charge of Rev. G. E. Prewitt. The remains will be taken to Pittsfield where interment will be made in West cemetery Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Personal Mention.
Miss Bertha Muzze has returned to Springfield after a visit in Winchester with her parents.

Mrs. A. L. Harrington of Carrollton arrived in Winchester Monday for a visit at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Don Harrington.

Miss Vera Rickard who has been visiting with relatives in St. Louis, left there Monday for Marion, where she will spend the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Earl Nelson and infant daughter have gone to Irving for a visit with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Gibson.

Mrs. W. H. Kinison and daughter Helen expect to go to Alton today for a visit.

The Pullen Comedians, who have been visiting Winchester for several years, arrived Sunday and are playing to large audiences.

WITH THE SICK.

Miss Gertrude Stainsforth, who recently underwent an operation on her throat at Dr. Day's hospital, is improving in a very satisfactory way.

Mrs. Effie Purvines of Alexander is in a hospital at Springfield where Monday evening she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Joseph B. Williamson who has been ill for some time is reported in a serious condition.

AUTOMOBILES

Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy and son Luther set out in their Maxwell car yesterday to visit the city, arriving in time to avoid the rain but when they reached home they decided to wait for dry weather before taking out their car again.

Wesley James was caught in the rain yesterday not far from Prentice but concluded he would come on home anyway so he cranked his Buick and proceeded, landing in the city all right though his car was loaded with quite a bit of the real estate of the north part of the county.

George F. Kuhlman, one of the county commissioners of Cass county, motored over to the city yesterday in a Studebaker car and started home again and as he had much sandy road to travel the supposition is that he reached his destination in safety.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Killam, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Acom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Killam and Mr. and Mrs. Will Hopper motored to Beardstown Tuesday evening in Mr. Acom's Ford and Mr. Killam's Oakland cars.

FUNERALS

Barnes.

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Barnes were held at the family residence Tuesday afternoon in charge of the Rev. Howard D. French and the Rev. A. B. Morey. Miss Mabel Mathews sang two songs, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Able with Me," with Miss Inez Huckleby accompanying. The flowers were in charge of Mrs. Felix B. Farrell. The bearers were four nephews of the deceased, W. S. Goodell, Virginia, John Goodell, Beardstown, A. J. Goodell, Chandler, Mo., and George Sewall, Carthage, Mo. Members of the Rev. James Caldwell Chapter D. A. R. attended in a body.

At the conclusion of the services the remains were taken to Chandler for burial. Brief services were held at the grave.

VETERAN ODD FELLOW PASSES EIGHTY-FOURTH MILESTONE

Alexander Armstrong Has Been Member of Illini Lodge No. 4 Since 1859—Was Born in Ulster, May 23, 1831.

One of the oldest Odd Fellows in Jacksonville observed his natal anniversary Sunday when Alexander Armstrong celebrated the beginning of his eighty-fourth year with a quiet family gathering at his home, 603 South Prairie street. Mr. Armstrong came to America in 1850. He has lived in Jacksonville most of the time since 1857 and since 1859 has been a faithful member of Illini lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F. For three years he saw active service in the War of the Rebellion and in addition to being an Odd Fellow he is a loyal member of Matt Starr Post, G. A. R.

Mr. Armstrong was born at Ennis-killen, county Fermanagh, Ulster, Ireland, May 23, 1831, the third in a family of ten children. His mother was Margaret Curry Armstrong, a relative of the Ohio Currys. At the age of ten Mr. Armstrong left home and went to Liverpool, finding work in the emigration office of George C. Beckett. After nine years in England he left for the United States in company with a younger brother, Samuel C. Armstrong, who is now living in San Francisco, and secured employment as a machinist's apprentice in Pittsburgh. A journeyman mechanic in those days was paid but $7.50 per week and young Armstrong thought himself well paid with $2.50 per week and $35.00 per year for clothes. Leaving Pittsburgh at the time of a strike he found his way to St. Louis and went to work at his trade as steam-fitter and machinist.

It was in 1857 that he first saw Jacksonville. With a company of twelve he came from St. Louis to work on the Illinois School for the Deaf. For several months he worked under direction of Supt. Philip G. Gillett and when fall came decided to make his home here. He was married to Miss Hannah Russell of this city in 1859, the same year he joined the Odd Fellows. Besides the one brother mentioned Mr. Armstrong has two sisters, Mrs. Mary Benner of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Lucy Harmon of Chicago. For several years past he has resided with his son, Samuel R. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong enlisted in Company D, 101st Illinois in 1862 and was in the Union service until the end of the war. He was with Sherman in the march to the sea and was later enlisted in the river patrol at the time of the Vicksburg campaign. He did sharpshooters' duty and saw serious fighting in the "mosquito fleet" then operating on the Mississippi. Mr. Armstrong was in the grand review at Washington, whence he returned with his regiment to Springfield and then to Jacksonville.

Though in good health, Mr. Armstrong has been out of active work for some ten years. For a long period he was engineer in the city water department and during the Tanner administration he was chief engineer at the Jacksonville State hospital.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. F. J. Andrews and Mrs. H. K. Chenoweth have issued invitations for a tea to be given Friday at the Andrews home in honor of Miss Alice Wadsworth.

The May meeting of the Rev. James Caldwell chapter D. A. R. was held Tuesday with Mrs. J. W. Walton. The paper of the afternoon was presented by Mrs. J. P. Lippincott and her theme which was admirably handled, was "The American Woman". Mrs. O. F. Buffe, the regent, gave a very interesting report of the D. A. R. congress in Washington and Miss Ainslie Moore added greatly to the pleasure of the evening with two vocal solos, Miss Inez Huckleby serving as accompanist.

Lambda Alpha Mu Entertain at Inn.

The Lambda Alpha Mu society of the Illinois Woman's college were entertained at the Colonial Inn at breakfast on Monday morning. At this function the girls of the society were the guests of the president, Miss Marie Witbeck, of Belvidere, Ill., and of the vice president, Miss Helen DeWitt of Rushville. The society colors, lavender, prevailed in the decoration of this the last social event of the year, at which Misses Witbeck and DeWitt were especially happy to be hostesses.

MORTUARY

Short.

L. S. Short died at his home in White Hall Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, aged 58 years. Mr. Short was a prominent resident of Greene county. For many years he was superintendent of the County Farm being compelled to resign his position several months ago on account of ill health. Death was due to paralysis. Mrs. Leslie Harvey formerly of this city, now residing in Keokuk, Iowa, is a daughter.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE WILL BE HELD IN JUNE

Supt. Vasconcellos Announces Annual Gathering for Study—Purpose is to Make Program Inspirational.

H. H. Vasconcellos, county superintendent of schools, has issued a circular letter announcing that the Morgan county teachers' annual institute will be held at the high school building the week beginning June 7. It is the intention of the superintendent to have the session inspirational and with that in view the time will be given to lectures rather than to textbooks and class work.

The instructors will be Dr. Stanley L. Kreks of Philadelphia, Pa., and Dr. O. L. Warren of Elmhurst, N. Y. Dr. Kreks is an institute instructor of broad experience and ability. Dr. Warren is well known to the teachers as he had a part in the institute last year. In addition to his lectures he will have charge of the music for the coming institute. In announcing the institute Mr. Vasconcellos calls attention to a section of the new certifying law which requires that all teachers' certificates be registered every year.

It is requested therefore that all teachers present their certificates for registration during the institute and it is announced further that no registration of certificates will be made except for teachers in attendance or who have been excused by the county superintendent prior to the institute.

FARMERS MEETINGS PLANNED FOR THE CHAUTAUQUA

Purpose is to Have Series of Conferences and Discussions—Will be Held in Separate Tent.

It is proposed to have a number of special farmers' meetings in connection with the chautauqua this year and in order to arrange for this department of work Dr. C. E. Black as president of the association, has named the following as farm program committee: F. J. Hehl, chairman; Chas. S. Black, Chas. A. Rowe, H. J. Sice, Thos. Worthington, Dr. J. W. Haingrove, J. W. Walton, Chas. E. Drake, C. Justus Wright, Louis Roberts, E. R. Hombrough, G. A. Leach, Frank O. Brown, W. T. Henry.

Members of the committee have been notified of their appointment and have also received a letter from Frank J. Hehl, chairman of the committee. Mr. Hehl suggests that as this is such a busy time with farmers that he hesitates to call a meeting, although he realizes that the program should be planned at once. Informally various members of the committee and the chautauqua directors have discussed the matter and it is proposed that there shall be a number of programs like those carried out by the farmers' club the past winter.

It is the intention to secure a number of speakers of wide repute and it is the desire further to have quite a large number of men living in or near Morgan county appear upon the programs. These farm meetings will be held in a special tent at such time as will not interfere with the main chautauqua. Mr. Hehl has suggested to members of the committee that they give the matter some thought and either write him a few lines or call by telephone and offer suggestions as to speakers. It is the intention to have the programs of the same informal character that marked the farmers' club meetings as it is believed that the greatest benefit will result in this manner.

GREAT THROG WILL GATHER AT INDIANAPOLIS

Interest in the Great 500 Mile Auto Race is Intense.

Indianapolis, May 25.—The city of Indianapolis has thrown away its municipal key and opened the door to the thousands of visitors who will throng its confines for the Indianapolis 500-mile race, Saturday, May 29.

Hotels are making preparations for the greatest crowd in history, while the local newspapers, and the speedway, are conducting room bureaus to take care of the overflow.

No one who has never been to the Hoosier capital for a 500-mile contest can realize the frantic activity that ensues with this event. Regular business ceases and the entire city transforms itself into a carnival.

Swarms of motor cars fill the streets night and day, threading packed masses of humanity that flow down the thoroughfares like a mighty torrent. The babel of countless voices fills the air, pierced by the shriek of sirens and the clamor of exhausts.

A 500-mile race, as run at Indianapolis, is one of the unforgettable experiences of human life. The town is just the size to give the proper setting to the contest. It is not submerged or obscured by other events that may be going on, but rules as the supreme feature of the day. In this respect it will always stand unrivaled.

SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF COMMENCEMENT.

The annual commencement exercises at the State School for the Deaf will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the chapel. The address will be made by Hon. Fred J. Kern, president of the State Board of Administration. Sixteen young people will graduate and the exercises promise to be of unusual interest. Local people probably realize little of importance of the work which graduation at the School for the Deaf indicates. Those who are granted diplomas have all qualified in some practical work as well as in their studies and they will leave the school equipped to make their own livelihood if that be necessary. The public is invited to the exercises.

"PATSY FROM DAKOTA" GIVEN BY MURRAYVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Comedy by Evelyn Watson Wittenness by a Large Audience—Miss Lillian McCullough Director.

"Patsy from Dakota," a comedy by Evelyn Watson, was given by the Murrayville high school in Carlson's Hall Tuesday evening, under the direction of Miss Lillian R. McCullough of Jacksonville. The place of the play was New York and the first act showed the drawing room of Mrs. Madison's home; act two, tea room in Miss Astor's house, two months later. Act three was the same as act one, two years later. Specialties were a ladies quartet and a monologue by Willard Westner.

The play was given a splendid interpretation and each one taking part did admirably well. The play took the place of the regular graduating exercises as there were only two who completed the course this year.

The following was the cast of characters:

Mrs. Leroy Madison, society lady—Melinda McCarty.
Patricia Greyson, her niece—Jane Wright.
Mrs. Rebecca Repeater, guest of Mrs. Madison—Grace Jennings.
Mrs. Brandon Makepeace, society lady—Gladys Osborne.
Miss Virginia Carter, society girl—Cecile Cunningham.
Miss Ethelyn Astor, her friend—Gertrude Johnson.
Countess Dural, a Parisienne—Ina Gibson.
Louis Dural, her cousin—Roy Clark.
Miss Kuryus, a "lady reporter"—Edna Osborne.
Celestine, a maid—Ina Begnal.

GIRL WINS OVER 13 BOYS IN FARM COW JUDGING COMPETITION

Miss Pearl Pike, Aged 16, Formerly of This County Wins Distinction in Contest at Longview Farm, Missouri—Given Jersey Calf as a Prize.

Miss Pearl Pike, sixteen years old won first place over thirteen boy contestants in a stock judging contest held at the Longview farm, near Grain Valley, Mo. Miss Pike is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pike, who were formerly from near Franklin but are now located on a farm close to Grain Valley, Mo. Miss Pike resided in Morgan county until 1909 when she moved to Blackwell, Oklahoma. She was graduated from the Grain Valley High school with the class of 1915 and has been very popular among her friends there. She will attend the University of Missouri at Columbia, Mo., this summer. She is a cousin of J. C. Rothwell of 609 Hardin avenue, this city.

The Kansas City Post in speaking of the contest says "Bossy" had her inning yesterday at the Longview farm. So did the Woman's movement. "Mermaid Elene" and "Imported Suzanne" of the bovine family, their hoofs manicured and their tails looking as if they had been done up over night in curl papers, made "My Major Dare" and "Revelation" take back seats in popularity. And in the stock judging contest a 16-year old girl—Miss Pearl Pike, of the Grain Valley High school—won first place over thirteen boy contestants.

Members of the Southwest Jersey Breeders' association at their basket picnic yesterday at Longview farm, looked at cows and talked of cows—Jerseys—all day, with the exception of one-half hour devoted to an exhibition of the Longview prize-winning horses.

Also they watched Kansas beat Missouri at Stock-judging and a girl lead away a Jersey calf, the gift of R. A. Long. The high schools represented in the judging contest were Hickman Mills, Grain Valley, Greenwood and Lees Dummer. Miss Pike is one of the regular team from the Grain Valley high school—"one of the stock-judging boys" she calls herself. Recently in a county contest she won second place.

"I love stock judging" she said, as she finished filling out her score card against a temperamental Jersey cow's back. The girls examined the cow's face to see if it was disheveled its nostrils to see if they were large, its hide to see if it was soft and silky and its eyes to determine whether "Bossy" was a loafer or a worker.

BIDS ARE ASKED.

Bids will be received by the Commissioners of Road District No. 9, Morgan Co., Ill., for the moving of 3100 cubic yards of earth, piers and profile may be seen at the office of the County Superintendent of Highways. Bids to be opened Saturday, May 29, at one p. m.
